'The Smile of Victory'

The smile spreading over the face of Alan Chambers as he looked up from the telephone at Liberal headquarters last night tells without words the tale of the first Liberal triumph in Nanaimo riding after 29 years. He had just received the returns from Nanaimo City, where the majority he rolled up assured his election in the whole constituency. Enthusiastic over Mr. Chambers' victory were members of the Twentieth Century Young Liberal Association, of which he was one of the founders.

The Battle Won, Mr. Mayhew Relaxes With His Family

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mayhew on Beach Drive was filled until a late hour last night with people who called to offer their congratulations to the Liberal victor in yesterday's election, and it was not until this morning that the family had "dad" to themselves. The Times cameraman called and he recorded the victory smile of the family right down to granddaughter Anne. Those in the above picture from left to right are: Logan Mayhew, Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, Mr. Mayhew, holding his granddaughter on his knee, Mrs. Alan Mayhew and Alan Mayhew. Miss Jean Mayhew, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew, is attending university in Montreal.

'Join Now for War Victory'

Prime Minister Mackenzie King . . . "Now that the elections are over, I ask my fellow citizens in all parts of this broad land, forgetting the differences of the past, to join their strength together in the fight for victory, peace and freedom."

Final Bulletins

7 Dead, Many Missing

PARIS (CP-Havas) — Seven seamen were killed and many are missing as result of an explosion aboard the destroyer La Railleuse, the naval ministry announced tonight.

La Railleuse, built in 1926, is a destroyer of the Adroit class, with a displacement of 1,495 tons. Her normal complement is 140 men.

Altmark Home

BERLIN (AP) — The German naval auxiliary vessel Altmark arrived at Kiel, Germany, late this afternoon after a long and adventurous war cruise abroad, it was learned tonight.

The Altmark, raided by the British destroyer Cossack in Norwegian territorial waters on February 16, when 299 British merchant seamen prisoners were rescued, reached German waters safely by slipping through the British blockade. She steamed down the Norwegian coast and through Danish waters.

CREDITER ELECTED

EDMONTON (CP) — Social Credit moved to within four seats of a majority in the Alberta Legislature with the election of S. A. Berg this afternoon on the second count in Alexandra.

The victory increased the number of Social Crediters elected to 25. Sixteen Independents and one Labor have been elected. Leading in the other 15 ridings are 12 Social Crediters and three Independents.

4 Lose Lives in Fire

LLOYDMINSTER, Sask. (CP) —Four Indian children were burned to death at the Onion Lake Reservation, 45 miles north of here last night, it was learned this afternoon.

Parents of the children, returning from a dance, found their home a mass of smouldering ruins with the four bodies lying in the ashes. The children, all between the ages of four and six, were grandchildren of Fred Shokum.

With roads blocked by snow drifts, only meagre details of the tragedy were available here.

Chinese Advance In Inner Mongolia

HONGKONG (CP)—The Chinese Central News Agency reported today that General Chiang Kai-shek's forces in Inner Mongolia had pushed beyond Wuyuan, western province town, which Chinese said was retaken yesterday.

Japanese losses were estimated at 3,400 men.

Artillery Duels

PARIS (AP)—Tonight's French communique: "Marked activity of artillery on both sides in the region west of the Vosges Mountains."

B.C. Teachers Ask Salary Scale

VANCOUVER (CP) — The British Columbia Teachers' Federation, in convention here, has decided to ask the provincial government for a minimum salary scale to be paid all teachers and to provide for increases of $60 annually over a 15-year period.

The report of the provincial salary committee, adopted by the teachers early today, calls for elementary teachers to start their probation year at $780 and to receive $60 increases each year for 15 years until the total reaches $1,680.

Junior high school teachers would start at $1,100 and work up to $2,000 a year. Senior high school teachers, or junior high school teachers with academic certificates, would begin at $1,200, while principals' salaries would be based on enrollment.

To protect teachers now on a higher salary schedule the motion was inserted in the report stating "it is the intention of the committee that any proposals suggested in this report adversely affect in no way salaries of teachers who are already on higher scale."

Another section of the report said the schedules were not proposed to indicate what should be the maximum salaries for teachers.

Hon. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, told the convention that its request for higher minimum salaries "must be considered in relation to other problems and in its proper social perspective."

"Hospital authorities could put up a more compelling case to the government than the teachers," he said before the convention adopted the report.

B.C.-Japan Contract For Copper Extended

Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Company announced today it has reached an agreement with Japanese interests for a three-year extension of their contract whereby the entire output of the company's copper mine at Allenby, B.C., goes to Japan.

The contract was signed two years ago and would have expired next July. Although the new contract is for a three-year period it contains a clause providing for cancellation as of June 30, 1941.

The company's ore shipments last year totaled 1,451,491 tons. President Julian B. Beaty said copper exports can be made only under federal license and the agreement was renewed with approval of Dominion authorities.

British Columbia's other big copper producer, Britannia Mining and Smelting Company, ships all its concentrates to Tacoma, Wash., where the smelter sells it on the world market.

Nazi Vessel On Patrol Sunk By R.A.F. Plane

LONDON (CP)—The Air Ministry announced tonight that a Royal Air Force plane attacked and sank a German patrol vessel during a reconnaissance flight over the North Sea today.

The reported sinking on Sunday last from an undisclosed cause of the British tanker Daghestan, 5,742 tons, spoiled an Admiralty announcement made yesterday that the week ended last Sunday midnight was the first since the war began in which no British or Allied merchantman had been sunk.

The 6,574-ton British steamship Castlemoor today was reported overdue and was feared lost with her crew of 40.

Thirty-six survivors from the 6,922-ton British steamship Rossington Court, rammed and sunk by an unidentified tanker in mid-Atlantic March 13, were landed in Britain today.

The Italian steamship Italo Balbo, 5,144 tons, was damaged in a collision with an unidentified Danish ship off the southeast coast of England; and the Netherlands coasting vessel Saba, 400 tons, was reported a week overdue at Amsterdam and feared lost with her crew of seven.

NORWAY LOSES SHIP

BERGEN, Norway (AP)—Shippers here were advised today that the 3,794-ton freighter Cometa, whose home port was Bergen, was torpedoed and sunk yesterday while in the contraband control base at Kirkwall, in the Orkney Islands off northern Scotland.

The entire crew of 37 was saved. The Cometa was en route from Bergen to Buenos Aires.

The newspaper Bergen Aftenblad criticized Britain for taking the ship to the contraband base. It said the British consul at Bergen had given her "official clearance." She carried a cargo of Norwegian goods.

Magnetic Storm

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A new magnetic storm, blamed on an electrical bombardment from sunspots, cut off virtually all trans-Pacific and transcontinental radio communication with San Francisco today.

For an hour this morning, starting about 8.30, the only regular radio communication was on one commercial line to Manila and on naval radio low-frequency over land channels.

RCA, Globe Wireless and Press Wireless reported they were shut off completely for an hour. After that period they reported communications were "recovering." Mackay Radio said it maintained its circuit to Manila with periodic fading that made communication difficult. Hawaii, Japan and China were shut off completely.

San Francisco is the key for trans-Pacific communication with the Orient and Pacific islands.

Canada's Decision War Verdict, Says London Press

LONDON (CP)—The result of Canada's general election monopolized the front pages of London papers this afternoon, reflecting public interest in the Dominion recently renewed with the arrival in Britain of the Canadian active service force and Canadian airmen.

The papers used big-type headlines. The Evening Standard heading read: "Mackenzie King Triumphs in Election." The Star bannered: "Canada Liberals' Smashing Victory!" Street posters declared "Canada Gives War Verdict."

The Evening News commented that "in Britain we take no sides in the affairs of a free Dominion, but we can note with pride that the only issue at stake in the election was the way in which Canada could most powerfully help us in the war."

The result of the election caught the stop-press column of the final editions of most London morning papers. The Daily Express put out a special edition with fresh posters.

MANION'S COURSE STATED UNCERTAIN

OTTAWA (CP) — The view was expressed in Conservative circles here this afternoon that no action would be taken to organize the party's parliamentary forces following yesterday's stunning defeat until such time as Hon. R. J. Manion, National Government party leader, had an opportunity to think over the situation and make recommendations to his followers.

Dr. Manion said last night he planned taking a holiday after his strenuous campaign, but there is a possibility that before he leaves he will consult with his lieutenants whether steps will be taken immediately to have a seat made available by which he could again enter Parliament. He was defeated in Fort William.

Reports were heard here today that Dr. Manion already has decided to resign the leadership when his followers convene for the opening of Parliament, but his office stated this was not true.

Quake Recorded

NEW YORK (AP) — Rev. Joseph J. Lynch said a "quite severe" earthquake occurred at 4.31 a.m. (P.S.T.), today at a distance of about 4,600 miles from New York. The Fordham University seismographer said the direction of the quake could not be determined.

Officials at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory here said they had no record of a quake.

MAY 2 DATE FOR PARLIAMENT?

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Minister Mackenzie King probably will sumon the new Parliament to meet either May 2 or May 9.

This belief is based on a statement by Mr. King last January 27 when he announced the date of the Dominion election and said he did not believe Parliament could be opened until "early in May." The prospect is that Parliament will be sitting throughout the summer.

No particular new policies are expected to be announced by the government. The only pre-election promises were to prosecute the war to the full extent of Canada's resources, to prepare for the problems peace would bring, and to maintain unity within the Dominion.

157 CANDIDATES LOSE DEPOSITS

By the Canadian Press

The federal government will collect probably more than $31,000 in lost deposits of candidates in yesterday's election.

On the basis of incomplete returns, in the civilian vote, compilations by the Canadian Press today showed 157 contestants in the big field of 669 had failed to poll at least one-half the vote of the winning candidates in scores of constituencies.

In many constituencies more than one candidate lost his deposit of $200 and the total of contributors to the national treasury may well exceed 157—at a cost of $31,400 to them—when the complete vote is known.

Heaviest losers appeared to be in Quebec, where indications today were that 48 had lost their deposits. In Ontario 41 were possible losers; in Alberta 20 and in Manitoba 18.

The probable losers in other provinces were: Saskatchewan, 12; British Columbia, 10; Nova Scotia, 6; New Brunswick, 2.

Provinces showing the largest number of losers presented a variety of candidates not aligned with any major party, and there were many three and four-corner fights.

No MacPhail Plans

CEYLON, Ont. (CP) — Miss Agnes MacPhail, defeated as United Farmers of Ontario-Labor candidate in Grey-Bruce yesterday after 19 years in Parliament, told the Canadian Press this afternoon she had made no plans for the future.

"I have no idea of what I'm going to do," said Miss MacPhail, the first woman elected to Parliament in Canada.

She commented on the election in three terse sentences: "Canada will regret it. The entire issue of the election was whether the government can disregard Parliament. After this we apparently must take it for granted that the government is everything."

Liberals Gain 3 Seats in B.C.; C.C.F. Lose 1

With Vancouver Island solidly in favor of the government Liberals will hold 10 of British Columbia's 16 seats in the new Parliament, three more than they had in the last House.

National Government candidates won four seats in yesterday's election, retaining the strength they had. The C.C.F. captured one seat and an Independent one.

Victoria's R. W. Mayhew piled up the biggest majority of any British Columbia candidate when he polled more than his opponents combined.

The C.C.F. lost one seat in the province—that of North Vancouver in which Grant McNeill was beaten by James Sinclair, former resident of Victoria, where he was private secretary to Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Trade and Commerce.

He and Alan Chambers, victorious Liberal in the Nanaimo constituency, will be among the youngest members of the House, both being in their early thirties. Sinclair is a bachelor and Chambers was married a few years ago and has a three-months-old son. He is 31.

Vancouver returned two of its seasoned Liberal campaigners, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Pensions and National Health, and G. G. McGeer, former M.P.P. and ex-mayor of Vancouver.

STEVENS BEATEN

Hon. H. H. Stevens, former right-hand man of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett and leader of the Reconstruction Party in the 1935 election, lost out as National Government candidate in Kamloops to T. J. O'Neill, Liberal member of the last House.

J. Gray Turgeon, Liberal, went back for Cariboo, as did Tom Reid, Liberal, in New Westminster, and Olaf Hanson, Liberal, in Skeena.

Three Conservatives retained their seats—Hon. W. K. Esling, Kootenay West; Howard C. Green, Vancouver South, and Hon. Grote Stirling, Yale.

Angus MacInnis, C.C.F. member of the last House for Vancouver East and son-in-law of C.C.F. Leader Woodsworth, was re-elected.

George Cruickshanks won the Fraser Valley seat for the Liberals from the Conservatives.

Dr. G. E. L. MacKinnon, Conservative, was elected in Kootenay East, previously held by Hon. H. H. Stevens.

A. W. Neill, Independent, won Comox-Alberni for the sixth time.

In the Yukon, George Black, former Speaker of the House, won the seat for the Conservatives. Electing Mr. or Mrs. Black to Ottawa has become a tradition in the north. He was elected in 1930 and when ill-health forced him to resign his wife ran for the seat, and was elected, in 1935.

Greatest Majority In Canada's History Given Premier King

By the Canadian Press

As late reporting constituencies added to the Liberal total today, it appeared possible Prime Minister Mackenzie King might have a government strength of more than 180 members in the new House of Commons—by far the largest in Canada's history.

This afternoon, election of 177 Liberals had been conceded in yesterday's election on the basis of the civilian vote. Five contests were doubtful, four in Alberta and one in Saskatchewan, and Liberal candidates were ahead or close in all of them.

Should these five and the deferred election in Three Rivers, Que., fall to the Liberals, Mr. King's following would total 183 out of 245. The National Government Party this afternoon had 38 seats, C.C.F. 8 and New Democracy 7.

However, there was no assurance the Liberals would win the five undecided seats for which polling took place yesterday.

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS

There was little the 65-year-old Prime minister could have asked of the electorate in yesterday's voting that he did not get as the returns came in sweeping victory from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The latest Canadian Press party standing, based on the civilian vote, follows:

Liberals	177
National Government	38
C.C.F.	8
New Democracy	7
Liberal-Progressive	3
Independent-Liberal	3
United Reform	1
Independent	1
Unity	1
Deferred	1
Doubtful	5
Total	245

In the high moment of his triumph, as the far west still was contributing Liberal victors to his total, Mr. King asked in a speech over the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's national network that Canadians, "forgetting the differences of the past, join their strength together in the fight for victory, peace and freedom."

The Liberal landslide, achieving even greater proportions than that of 1935 when it returned Mr. King and his followers to power over the Bennett Conservative government, brought stunning defeat to the new Conservative leader, Hon. R. J. Manion, whose proposed National Government was rejected.

Dr. Manion, a medical officer in the first Great War and Minister of Railways and Canals in the Bennett Government, suffered personal defeat in Fort William, while the Prime Minister was elected in Prince Albert, Sask.

Election of candidates was conceded on the basis of the civilian vote, but the possibility exists that when the ballots of between 85,000 and 90,000 soldiers, sailors and airmen are counted results in a few constituencies may be changed.

In most constituencies, however, the winning candidates hold substantial majorities that could scarcely be overturned when the active service vote, taken in England and Canada before election day, is reported next week.

Mr. King's appeal to the country was made when the party standing in the House of Commons stood as follows: Liberals, 169; Conservatives, 38; Social Credit, 15; Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation, 7; Independent Liberal, 5; Liberal-Progressive, 2; Independent, 2; Independent Conservative, 1; U.F.O.-Labor, 1; United Reform, 1; vacant, 4.

TODAY'S COUNT

Early this morning the Liberal total shot up above the record 169 as it had been apparent it would since before midnight. Mr. King was assured that when he calls Parliament, his opposition would be even smaller than it was on the dramatic day in January when dissolution ended a four-hour session.

Dr. Manion's National Government group was no larger than it was as the Conservative unit in the last House. The New Democracy representation from Alberta was half that of the Social Credit band in the last House. Only the C.C.F. made a slight gain.

While the entire Liberal war cabinet was returned without casualty, opposition groups suffered heavily.

MAURETANIA CROSSING PACIFIC

BALBOA, C.Z. (AP) — The British liner Mauretania, stripped of her furnishings and bound on a secret war mission, sailed out into the Pacific Ocean today for an unannounced destination after a cautious trip, which took 9¼ hours, through the Panama Canal.

The 35,739-ton liner steamed away soon after midnight, her crew singing lustily "It's a Long Way to Tipperary."

Yesterday her agents said she would cross the Pacific, and it was believed she was bound for Australia to become a troopship.

Liberal Strength Grows in West

WINNIPEG (CP) — Liberals won stronger parliamentary support in western Canada on the basis of incomplete civilian returns from yesterday's federal election than was given them in 1935, when the west sent 37 Liberals and Liberal-Progressives to the House of Commons.

Prime Minister King received personal endorsation in Prince Albert, which he has represented since 1926, and all four of his western cabinet ministers were re-elected by substantial majorities. With results still incomplete in the four western provinces, election of at least 40 supporters of the King administration was indicated.

Liberal strength was maintained in Manitoba and increased in British Columbia. Losses to Co-operative Commonwealth Federation candidates in Saskatchewan were more than offset in Alberta at the expense of Social Crediters running under the New Democracy banner.

CRERAR RE-ELECTED

The resources minister, Hon. T. A. Crerar, was re-elected in Churchill, Man.; the agriculture minister, Hon. J. G. Gardiner, in Melville, Sask.; Hon. James A. MacKinnon, minister without portfolio, in Edmonton West; and the pensions and health minister, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, in Vancouver Centre.

Only gain from Liberals in Manitoba was in Souris, where G. W. McDonald, the last member, was defeated by J. A. Ross, National Government. So close was the voting that the first civilian tabulation indicated incorrectly that Mr. McDonald had been returned.

J. S. Woodsworth, national C.C.F. leader, had only a 114 margin over A. R. Macdonell, Liberal, in Winnipeg North Centre, which Mr. Woodsworth has represented since 1925. Liberals gained from the C.C.F. in Winnipeg North, which Lieut.-Col. C. S. Booth won from A. A. Heaps, like his leader a veteran of 15 years' parliamentary experience.

Hon. T. G. Murphy, last Conservative Minister of the Interior, failed in an attempted comeback in Neepawa, Man., where he lost to the last member, F. D. Mackenzie, Liberal.

MacPHERSON DEFEATED

M. A. MacPherson, chief campaign lieutenant of Conservative Leader R. J. Manion and former Saskatchewan Attorney-General, was beaten in Regina City by D. A. McNiven, Liberal member at dissolution.

A highlight of Saskatchewan returns was the re-election in Rosetown-Biggar of M. J. Coldwell, national chairman of the C.C.F., who defeated R. P. Hassard, Liberal, with J. T. M. Anderson, former Conservative Premier of Saskatchewan, in third place.

Hon. W. D. Herridge, founder of the New Democracy movement and former Canadian Minister to the United States, failed in his first Dominion election. He was defeated in Kindersley by C. H. Henderson, Liberal. C. B. Elliott, Social Credit, occupied the seat in the last House but resigned to make way for Mr. Herridge.

J. F. Diefenbaker, Saskatchewan Conservative leader, won Lake Centre from the Liberal member at dissolution, J. F. Johnston. Mrs. D. W. Neilsen, Unity, gained North Battleford from the Liberals, defeating C. W. McIntosh, but the province's other woman candidate, Mrs. Lucas, C.C.F., lost to Mr. Gardiner in Melville.

Alberta, which sent only one Liberal and one Conservative to Ottawa in 1935, along with 15 Social Crediters, failed to support New Democracy candidates as strongly. Of the first 13 seats decided in the province, seven went to New Democracy and six to Liberals.

ROWBOAT RESCUES YOUTH ADRIFT ON FLOATING ICE—Here is the story in pictures of the rescue of a 20-year-old youth from a Hudson River ice-floe at New York. Walking out on the ice, Joseph Kobeznski was trapped when a floe broke loose, and at left he stands looking helplessly toward the crowd on shore, unable to come in over the broken cakes. At centre, Police-Sergeant Anthony Hartnagle takes a rowboat out through the gaps in the ice to the rescue, and at right, Kobeznski climbs into the boat. He was taken to hospital and released after he had been provided with dry clothing.

Russian Ship Carrying Metal Held at Hongkong

LONDON (CP)—Reuters' News Agency reported today the Soviet steamship Vladimir Mayakovsky, said to be carrying a cargo of metals from the American Pacific coast to Vladivostok, had been detained at Hongkong pending examination of her cargo by British authorities.

The Reuter story, without dateline, said the vessel took aboard copper at Manzanillo and molybdenum at San Pedro, Calif. Both metals are used in munitions making.

In London it was stated that although Hongkong had not been formally established as a contraband control base, a belligerent power had the right under the rules of warfare to bring in captures at sea to any of its ports for examination.

(The Vladimir Mayakovsky arrived at Manzanillo, on Mexico's west coast, January 19, loaded and sailed February 1. Her next call was at San Pedro. On February 17 she turned up at San Francisco, where all visitors were kept at a distance. She was the second Soviet ship in that port since the European war began. She left a few days later for Vladivostok.

(The Vladimir Mayakovsky is the second Russian freighter taken into Hongkong. The 2,492-ton Selenga was compelled to enter there January 13 and there has been no report of her departure in spite of protests by the Russian embassy at London against her detention).

During June, 1940, the Big Bend Highway will be opened. This road, 20 miles long, will form a connecting link in the trans-Canada highway and will make a direct motor route from Banff, Alberta, to Vancouver, B.C.

Resigns With Cabinet

Liberals Hold Eastern Canada

TORONTO (CP)—In only one section of eastern Canada, the Maritimes, in yesterday's election were opposition candidates able to make headway against the Liberal Party.

In the provinces by the sea, the Liberals' almost solid bloc was cut, but only to the extent of five of the 26 seats. They lost one seat to the C.C.F. in Nova Scotia and four to the National Government in New Brunswick. In Quebec, French Canada stood solidly behind the record of Prime Minister Mackenzie King's government, and on the basis of yesterday's civilian vote swept 61 Liberals and three Independent Liberals into the House of Commons. Voting in the 65th seat—Three Rivers—was deferred because of the death of Willie Poisson.

Liberals continue to dominate Ontario's delegation, but the province retains its Conservative core.

Yesterday 57 Ontario constituencies elected Liberals or Liberal-Progressives and 25 elected National Government candidates. As a result the National Government representation remains the same as the Conservative representation in the last Parliament, while the Liberals gained one.

The Liberal net gain was achieved at the expense of Miss Agnes Macphail, U.F.O.-Labor, the first woman to sit in the Canadian Parliament. She met defeat in Grey-Bruce after nearly 20 years' continuous service in Parliament.

INTEREST IN ONTARIO

Ontario was the scene of some of the sharpest political skirmishing of the election campaign and its verdict was awaited with special interest because of the critical attitude adopted by the Liberal Premier, Hon. Mitchell F. Hepburn, towards the federal Liberal government.

Although the party standing in the province underwent no material change individuals met with varying fortunes. No fewer than 17 of the 82 seats changed their party allegiance. Liberals captured seven seats from National Government supporters and one from Miss Agnes MacPhail. Conservatives captured seven from the Liberals.

The Liberal gains included such traditionally Conservative seats as Hamilton East, Hamilton West, Wentworth, Toronto, Eglinton, Leeds and Lanark. Conservatives stormed and won a Liberal stronghold in Kent and won back Frontenac-Addington, Hastings-Peterborough, Hastings South, Huron North, Peterborough West and York West, all of which went to the Liberals in the sweep of 1935.

Ontario's 25 National Government supporters saved the party headed by Hon. R. J. Manion from virtual extinction.

MANION DEFEAT

Dr. Manion, himself, however, met defeat in the northwestern Ontario constituency of Fort William. Rev. Dan McIvor, who wrested the seat from him in 1935 when Dr. Manion was Minister of Railways and Canals, retained it against Dr. Manion, the party leader.

All Ontario ministers, Hon. Norman Rogers, National Defence; Hon. C. D. Howe, Transport; Hon. W. D. Euler, Trade and Commerce, and Hon. Norman McLarty, Labor, retained their seats.

By increasing its representation from Ontario the Liberal party set a new high record. In 1935 for the first time since 1874 Liberals obtained a majority of Ontario seats.

Not one National Government candidate was elected in Quebec. The Liberals in most cases scored easy triumphs. One of the hardest-fought contests appeared to have taken place in Montreal-Verdun where the victorious Liberal candidate, P. E. Cote, staged a neck-and-race with Herve Ferland, an Independent-Liberal, who was among seven other contestants including a woman, Miss R. B. J. Adams.

MONTREAL RIDINGS

The pace was set by the Liberal candidates in the 16 Montreal island seats. Seven of them ran up majorities of more than 10,000, brushing aside such political veterans as Hon. C. H. Cahan, former Conservative Secretary of State; R. S. White, the dean of the House of Commons, and W. Allen Walsh, former member for Montreal Mount Royal.

The closest Quebec voting was in Gaspe, where Maurice Brasset, Liberal candidate, was re-elected with a majority on available returns of 338 over J. S. Roy, Independent Conservative.

Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Justice Minister, was re-elected with a comfortable margin in Quebec East. He defeated Paul Bouchard, Independent Nationalist. Mr. Lapointe's son, Hughes, a 29-year-old lawyer, was apparently victorious in Lotbiniere in his first political venture.

Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, Works Minister, a veteran cabinet minister, was returned in Richelieu-Vercheres, and the Postmaster-General, Hon. C. G. Power, won in Quebec South. One of the National Government party defeats was that of Georges Heon, Quebec Conservative organizer, who lost to James W. McGibbon, Liberal, in Argenteuil.

Voting was deferred in Three Rivers owing to the death Monday night of the Liberal candidate, Willie Poisson. No date for nominations and voting has been set yet.

In the last House Liberals held 55 of the Quebec seats, Independent Liberals five, and Conservatives five.

RALSTON RE-ELECTED

The Maritimes' cabinet representation remained intact. Hon. J. L. Ralston, Finance Minister, went back in Prince; Hon. J. L. Ilsley, Revenue Minister in Digby-Annapolis-Kings, and Hon. J. E. Michaud, Fisheries Minister, in Restigouche-Madawaska.

A. J. Brooks, the lone Maritime Conservative elected in the last election, was re-elected in Royal as a National Government candidate. The other National Government victories in New Brunswick were scored in St. John-Albert, Victoria - Carleton, Northumberland and York-Sunbury.

The sole C.C.F. supporter elected was Clarie Gillis, who defeated the sitting Liberal member and a National Government candidate in Cape Breton South.

Aside from Gillis, all of the seven third-party candidates running in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick lost their deposits. None ran in Prince Edward Island.

French-Soviet Break Expected

PARIS (AP) — A complete break in diplomatic relations between Soviet Russi and France appears to be foreshadowed in the recall—at French request—of the Russian ambassador to Paris.

An official spokesman charged today that France and her war ally, Great Britain, were "insulted" by a telegram which the envoy, Jakob Surits, recently attempted to send to Josef Stalin, congratulating him on the peace treaty with Finland as a stroke against "British-French warmongers."

Surits did not make use of his diplomatic immunity by sending the message in code, but instead handed it into the regular channels of the French post office. The government considered the telegram, written in precise French, an undiplomatic act and an attempt by the envoy to use regular communications for Communist propaganda.

Ordinary telegrams are subject to censorship. Surits' message therefore was stopped and later sent to the French charge d'affaires in Moscow, who handed it to the Russian Premier-Foreign Commissar Vyacheslaff and Molotoff with France's request that Surits be recalled.

Premier Reynaud's nine-man inner war cabinet held its second meeting this morning, but whether the Russian and Balkan situations were discussed remained for the time being a state secret.

EARLY DEPARTURE

Surits is expected to leave Paris for Moscow within a few days. His recall means that neither nation will have an ambassador in the other's capital. The French envoy, Paul Emile Naggiar, has been on "sick leave" for some weeks.

The French demand that Russia recall Surits was interpreted as a "warning" to Russia from the new "win-the-war" government under Paul Reynaurd that it intends to take a stiffer diplomatic course in the conflict with Germany, Russia's new-found friend.

The French, who have been engaged in an intensive battle with under-ground Communist organizations, also are said to be disturbed by a reported increase in Russian espionage.

As long ago as January 14 Philippe Henriot filed a resolution in the Chamber of Deputies, demanding severance of diplomatic relations with Moscow, and today a French press campaign toward the same end appeared to be gaining momentum.

The next strain on Paris-Moscow relations may come when—and if—the Soviet Union nominates a successor to Surits, the recalled Paris envoy. In informed quarters it was considered unlikely that the new French government of Premier Paul Reynaud, pledged to make war on Germany "in every field," would approve any replacement for Surits.

NAZIS INCREASE SCOUTING FLIGHTS

PARIS (CP-Havas) — Sudden and possibly significant German interest in Allied troop strength and defence positions along the northern border region of France was reported today by military sources.

The series of Nazi reconnaissance flights staged over the area since Monday night revived forecasts of a German offensive through Netherlands and Belgium. French army sources pointed out, however, that there has been no appreciable change in the disposition of German troops massed near the Dutch and Belgian borders since last fall.

Some Nazi troops have been moved from the right to the left bank of the Rhine, it was said. The move involved relatively few men, however, and the general picture remained unchanged. The same military quarters emphasized, on the other hand, that the divisions massed along the Reich's western borders can be started rolling on an offensive within 24 to 48 hours' notice.

Today's official communique merely said there was "nothing to report."

NAZI REPORT

BERLIN (CP-Havas) — The German high command's communique today said: "On March 26 enemy planes tried several times to fly over the Franco-German border. German pursuit planes repulsed the adversary and shot down, without themselves suffering losses, one British Hurricane and one French Morane."

Mr. King Thanks Canada For 'Greatest Trust'

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King, broadcasting a message to the people of Canada thanking them for support given his administration in the Dominion election, promised that "the government to which you have committed the greatest of all trusts will do its utmost to be worthy of them, of you, and of Canada."

Conservative leader Manion, who suffered personal defeat in Fort William and whose National Government party candidates made little headway against the flood of Liberal votes, followed the Prime Minister on the air. Both leaders spoke over the national network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Following is the text of the Prime Minister's speech:

"From the beginning of the campaign to this hour I have never doubted that on the day of polling the people of Canada would make clear that the interests of our country would be best served by continuing in office the present administration. For the evidence of your continued confidence, support and encouragement, I give you, on behalf of my colleagues, and myself, our humble and heartfelt thanks.

"I am sure there is in the hearts and the minds of the citizens of Canada, as there is in my heart and mind, a sense of immense relief that today a new Parliament, fresh from the people has been brought into being to cope with the tremendous problems which face our country at this time of war.

"I doubt if any of you will realize what it means to me, with the responsibilities, which, since the outbreak of war, have been mine, to know that the votes of all soldiers, sailors and airmen, whether across the seas, on the seas, or in Canada, have been safely recorded and this year's general election completely over before war has broken in all its fury upon Europe.

LESSON TO WORLD

"You will never know how relieved and, may I add, how proud I feel that the Canadian people have shown to other parts of the British Empire and to other countries that it has been possible for Canada to carry through a general election at a time of war, without impairing the united war effort of a united country. For all of this I am deeply thankful.

"I believe that all who have given the present administration their support have rendered the highest possible service to our coutry at this time. Not to our country alone, but also to Britain and France and to those small nations whose freedom has been destroyed, threatened or imperilled by the most relentless, cruel and brutal of foes.

"This great service does not belong to the present alone or to these countries alone. It is a contribution to the future of the world itself. I hope the men and women who have given the government their support will find their reward in the part which they have thus played in the making of history and the safeguarding of liberty.

"You have seen with clear eyes that the great issue before us has in reality been the only issue which matters. It has been the war effort of a free people fighting to maintain freedom. I have personally tried to look beyond the present into the dark and threatening years that lie before us.

"I have asked you to do the same. The result of this election is proof that you, yourselves, have felt that a vigorous and united Canada in a united war effort is necessary above all things not only effectively to aid Britain and France in their struggle to preserve freedom in Europe, but essential as well to preserve true freedom in our land.

FOR CLEAN CAMPAIGNING

"By your votes you have expressed once, and I trust for all time, your disapproval of methods of political campaigning which if permitted to get a foothold in our Dominion or any of its provinces would soon destroy the free institutions of government and the accepted standards of our public life. I would particularly like to extend my congratulations to the city of Kingston with its historic military associations. It has honored itself and Canada by ensuring to this country the services of a great minister of national defence whose character, ability and integrity have risen triumphant over a concentrated sequence of unwarranted attacks.

"During the present campaign, as you are all aware, I have done my best to avoid personalities and to refrain from any form of attack which might leave behind it bitter memories or wounds which it might be hard to heal."

"I have done this, not only because such conduct is, I believe, foreign to my nature, but because I have felt that the labors and sacrifices which will be necessary before victory is assured, will need the co-operative good will of us all.

QUOTES LINCOLN

"I can find no words which better express my feeling than those uttered by Abraham Lincoln when his party was returend victorious at a time of civil war:

"'While I am deeply sensible to the high compliment of a re-election and duly grateful, as I trust, to Almighty God for having directed my countrymen to a right conclusion, as I think, for their own good, it adds nothing to my satisfaction that any other man may be disappointed or pained by the results.

"'I am thankful to God for this approval of the people; but, while deeply grateful for this mark of their confidence in me, if I know my heart, my gratitude is free from any taint of personal triumph. I do not impugn the motives of any one opposed to me. It is no pleasure to me to triumph over anyone, but I give thanks to the Almighty for this evidence of the people's resolution to stand by free government and the rights of humanity.'

"Now that the elections are over, I ask my fellow citizens in all parts of this broad land, forgetting the differences of the past to join their strength together in the fight for victory, peace and freedom.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I have no doubt that the faith and fire within every one of us are pledged to the great cause which has called our soldiers, our sailors and our airmen to the service of their country. The government to which you have committed the greatest of all trusts will do the utmost to be worthy of them, of you, and of Canada."

ACCEPTS DECISION

Following is text of Dr. Manion's speech:

"The people have spoken and therefore I have very little to say. After all we live in a democracy, thank God, and while there are flaws in the method of obtaining the vote, at the same time once that vote has been taken, being law-abiding citizens we accept it.

"The electors of Canada have decided to continue as they are. That is their right.

"As I have spoken over six weeks and Mr. King for about six days and, as apparently we have convinced the electors in inverse proportion to the time in which we spoke, it would certainly appear to be a very broad hint to me to say but little tonight and I shall.

"The responsibility continues to be Mr. King's—not only to carry on our war effort but to prepare for the after-war. That is the decision of the people and I have no complaint.

"It is my earnest hope that Mr. King and his government will so carry on their duties that our country and our empire will not only attain success in the war but in the after-war as well.

"I should like to thank very sincerely all those friends and supporters throughout Canada who worked so hard in behalf of my ideas. I deeply appreciate their efforts.

"And may this Canada that we all love go on from success to success until finally it attains that great destiny which surely awaits it."

Yukon Sends Black To Commons

DAWSON CITY, Y.T. (CP)—Capt. George Black, National Government candidate in the Yukon federal constituency, was re-elected to the House of Commons yesterday after a five-year absence, succeeding his wife, who did not oppose him.

Charles Reid, British Columbia Liberal organizer and only other candidate, conceded Captain Black's election early today.

When ill-health kept Captain Black, former Speaker of the House of Commons, out of the 1935 federal election campaign, Mrs. Black ran as an Independent Conservative and was elected. This election Captain Black's health was improved, and she did not seek re-election, leaving the field to her husband and Mr. Reid.

GERMANS DOWNED IN AERIAL COMBAT

LONDON (CP)—The air ministry announced today that two German aircraft were shot down in flames yesterday in combat with Royal Air Force craft near Metz on the western front.

The communique said that one R.A.F. fighter plane was shot down, but that the flier escaped by a parachute.

It described aerial activity in the neighborhood of Metz as showing "marked increase."

The air ministry said that a formation of seven German reconnaissance planes escorted by fighters was intercepted by a Royal Air Force unit.

"Several combats took place and out-fighters, having broken up the enemy formation, forced the enemy to abandon his reconnaissance."

Revolt Thwarted

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Bolivia appeared to be returning to normal rapidly today after a budding military revolt was thwarted at the very gates of the presidential palace by a resourceful handful of loyal officers with two machine guns.

Continued order was assured by a state of siege proclaimed by the provisional president, Carlos Quintanilla, who, with three other high officials, was said to have been marked for assassination. Col. Celestino Pinto, named by government officials as the brains of the abortive plot, was under arrest.

A courtmartial was planned for officers involved in the rebellion. Col. Luis Campero, head of the military college, was relieved of his command.

ACTIVE SERVICE COUNT STARTED

LONDON (CP Cable)—In the big sixth-floor room of an office building adjoining Canada House, scrutineers under the direction of Col. J. T. C. Thompson are tallying the vote of Canada's active service force in the United Kingdom.

Col. Thompson regards the vote as light—"about 60 per cent." He had expected 95 per cent.

At 7 yesterday evening, British summer time (10 a.m. P.S.T.) workers began a job which may take the rest of this week.

Two scrutineers and a poll clerk are working at each of three tables in the room, the walls of which are lined with ballot boxes. Signs on the wall indicate which province's boxes are placed there.

The returning officer has cable forms already prepared and addressed, and all they need is to be filled in with the results and hurried by messenger to a nearby telegraph office.

Counting is harder work than in a civilian election. It involves the emptying of ballot boxes, then relocking and sealing, the opening of outer envelopes, and the placing of the inner envelopes unopened in the ballot box. Then the box is reopened and the inner envelopes taken out and opened.

Canada Has Spoken

ONE LINE IN "MUCH ADO ABOUT Nothing" may be applied to yesterday's triumph for Mr. Mackenzie King and his government: "A victory is twice itself when the achiever brings home full numbers." The Prime Minister and Dr. R. J. Manion are at liberty to ponder the words of the immortal bard as they see fit. The voice of the Canadian people has been heard from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It has told Mr. King and his colleagues to "Carry On!" He would be a brave man who would question the emphatic nature of its tone.

What the verdict means above all else is that Canadians believed the Prime Minister when he assured them that Canada's war effort was being prosecuted in accordance with the requirements of Great Britain and her French ally. They believed him when on various occasions he dealt with the chief criticisms of his opponents—particularly his explanation of the air training scheme—and the flagrant distortions to which Conservative candidates and speakers resorted. They believed him when he emphatically declared that his government was employing and intended to continue to employ all the resources at its command to insure that Canada's contribution to the cause of right and justice should be worthy of this senior overseas partner in the British Commonwealth of Nations. They believed him when he suggested it was now more than ever before desirable that Canadian unity should be manifested in the democratic way—within the secrecy and sanctity of the polling booth. And what more conclusive and convincing assurance could the west have given to the east, especially to the Ancient Province of Quebec, than that which will take form in an almost solid government contingent in the next Parliament? Liberal Adelard Godbout's triumph over Duplessis last October finds its sequel in the answer of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and of the Maritime Provinces.

Thus have we today a united Canada in every sense of the term. Her newest declaration of faith, moreover, has been published by popular voice in the face of the bitterest type of political partizanship this country has ever experienced when danger has threatened from without. We say political partizanship because the opposition forces masqueraded under a guise whose transparency must have brought blushes to those Conservatives who still treasure—and have every right to treasure—the memory and service to Canada of Sir John A. Macdonald. It is not for us to speculate on whether this latest experience at the polls will suggest to the party's board of strategy that there are practices to which some Conservatives descend that now have been ruled out much more emphatically even than in the general election of 1935.

We refer specifically to the hoary assumption that the Conservative party is the only party with the interests of the British Empire near to its heart. It is not our intention at this stage or in this place to recall some of the literature issued by Dr. Manion and his supporters during the recent campaign, any more than to suggest that a good deal of it must have been bitterly resented by many Conservatives here and elsewhere. Not only was it clumsy, vicious in some of its detail and utterly unsportsmanlike in general, it also was as much in conflict with the truth as those descriptions of Canada's first contingent's underwear which the men who aspired to prosecute the country's war effort used millions of words to emphasize. Whether our pocket imperialists have learned anything from this test of Canadian public opinion we do not know. It is not the first time they have been "caught out" in their flag-waving. Yesterday's vote, however, proved conclusively that the great majority of the adult population of this Dominion prefer performance to platitude.

The fact remains, of course, that when Mr. Mackenzie King decided to take his case to the people, the oppositionists found themselves confronted with democracy in practice. Dr. Manion and his supporters immediately compared the Prime Minister's request for dissolution with the tactics of Hitler. This was the Conservative Party's initial mistake. Mr. King knows the people; he was not afraid to go to them, for it is the people from whom parliamentary authority is derived. The people have spoken.

With Both Barrels

IF HON. IAN MACKENZIE FELT INclined to be vindictive, which he will not, he might ask Colonel George Drew how he liked the sound of the guns that went off all over Canada yesterday. The Minister of Pensions and National Health also might pursue his inquiries further and ask Maclean's Magazine when it proposes to publish the next article from the Ontario Conservative leader and what its subject will be. "I Didn't Know It Was Loaded" perhaps would not be out of place as a catchy title for a new series of Bren gun "revelations"—with a foreward written especially by Premier "Mitch" Hepburn. In the meantime, however, the member for Vancouver Centre, the former Minister of National Defence who put this country in a position to stage a flying start on its war effort, is to be congratulated on obtaining yesterday such a fine tribute—as reflected by the impressive majority he scored.

The Island's Victories

VICTORIA WAS EXPECTED TO RETurn Mr. Mayhew with at least as substantial a majority as he scored on his first bid for parliamentary honors 24 months ago—even in the face of a most extraordinary campaign waged against him by the Manion party and its national "big guns"—but it was not supposed he would leave his two opponents so far behind as to roll up a vote some 1,500 in excess of the combined total of the N.G. and C.C.F. candidates.

There is little to be said about this new manifestation of confidence in the Liberal standard-bearer beyond reiterating the obvious. The citizens of this community trust Mr. Mayhew. They gave him proof of this in the latter part of 1937. Their compliment yesterday was one of which they will have no cause for regret. As the morning paper very properly says, "Mr. Mayhew has been a good member and has worked in the interests of all his constituents," thus fulfilling his original pledge, a pledge he renewed when he entered the campaign which has just ended. He may be sure of the heartiest congratulations from all fair-minded people; nothing he said in the printed word or on the platform can ever be held against him by even the bitterest partizan. His conduct from nomination day to polling day was exemplary.

And Mr. Alan Chambers is entitled to more than an ordinary meed of praise. He wrested a constituency which had been in the Conservative column for 30 years—and won the day with a majority of more than 3,000 over his Conservative opponent. To a very large extent, of course, his outstanding success is directly traceable to the hard work he had put in throughout the constituency since his defeat in 1935. He felt such an important riding should be represented in Ottawa by a young man of vigor and enthusiasm. He brought to bear upon his task of converting the electorate to this point of view an engaging personality, an unusual intelligence and breadth of vision, and won the day handsomely. Federal Nanaimo has an energetic champion in Mr. Chambers and his career at Ottawa will be watched with interest.

Then there is Vancouver Island's third member who, while occupying his seat in Parliament as an Independent, subscribes wholeheartedly to the Liberal philosophy. The fact that Mr. A. W. Neill will enter his sixth term with a record majority for the riding of Comox-Alberni is eloquent testimony to the value so many of his constituents place on his service in their behalf.

Notes

Who said Tory Victoria?

We were just wondering how "Mitch" Hepburn feels about it all now.

The lesson for the C.C.F. is that the going is usually hard for a radical party in wartime.

It may be assumed that there will be little temptation hereafter for the Conservative party to attempt to camouflage itself as anything else.

Now we may be able to read something in the Financial Post and Maclean's Magazine other than rewrites of the Bren gun and others of Col. Drew's alleged scandals.

There is now no doubt about Canada being in the war to stay, with the government backed by a Parliament more unanimous than it has been in Canadian history.

At bottom were two facts: 1. the record of the government was such that the country had confidence in it; 2. the Conservative leadership was hopelessly weak, so weak that the country, especially in wartime, would not risk turning to it, even if there had been dissatisfaction with the government.

The change in the party name handicapped the Conservatives from the start. Next, the party was without definite and distinctive policy. Then, its campaign degenerated into scandal-mongering, which is rarely good politics and with which the public has shown it had no patience during wartime. Finally, Dr. Manion as a last effort began promising everybody everything. This was interpreted by the country as a gesture of desperation.

The Conservatives—or National Government, if you will—lost their three top men in the defeat of Dr. Manion in Fort William, Hon. H. H. Stevens in Kamloops and Hon. M. A. MacPherson in Regina. The latter two were runners-up against Dr. Manion for the party leadership at the Ottawa convention two years ago. Mr. Stevens was in the last Parliament with Dr. Manion. To strengthen the party's front bench, Mr. MacPherson was induced to enter the federal field. Another seat will probably be found for Dr. Manion, but the elimination of the other two will leave the party leadership weaker than ever.

In the defeat of the 84-year-old Smeaton White and the 79-year-old Hon. C. H. Cahan in Montreal, the Conservative party loses its two seniors in Parliament as well as in many ways its two most eminent members. Mr. White was first elected to the Commons in 1888, and it had come to be believed generally that his Westmount seat was safe for him as long as he lived. Mr. Cahan, who was Secretary of State under Mr. Bennett, is one of the country's outstanding constitutional authorities. The old-line Conservatives in the English-speaking districts of Montreal, however, were never reconciled to the Manion leadership.

And He said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.—St. Luke 4:24.

South of the Border

ARTICLE 9

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

SOUTH AMERICA, because she is in a competitive, not a complementary market, with the United States, has developed its main trading interests with European countries. The United States never imported more than $700,000,000 worth of goods a year from South America or exported more than $600,000,000 worth to South America. Lately this trade has dropped down to about $300,000,000. Thus the whole of South America buys about three-fifths as much from the United States as Canada does. To Britain the United States sells $500,000,000 worth of goods in peacetime. The British Empire buys about $1,250,000,000 worth of American goods a year, a third of the United States' total exports, and four times as much as South America can buy.

In fact, the United States has only about a quarter of South America's total export and import trade. For example, Argentine, Bolivia, Peru and Uruguay ship from 50 to 85 per cent of their exports to Britain, Germany, France, Belgium and Holland, and take a fourth to a third of their imports from the same countries. The United States leads in trade with Brazil, Chile, Colombia and Venezuela.

TO REORGANIZE this trade in favor of the United States would be a gigantic project, would certainly mean altering the production of both continents to make them complementary where, at present, they are largely competitive. How difficult this would be is shown by experience to date. The United States has loaned $3,000,000,000 to South America, but most of it is in default. The United States cannot take enough goods from South America to repay the money. Yet lately it has increased its South American loans slightly and is talking of lending still more so that South America can use the money to buy American goods. This probably means, in the end, merely giving the goods to the South Americans for nothing.

In fact, a large development of trade north and south can only be accomplished by a complete overhaul of the United States' entire foreign trade structure and also by more and more management of American production by the government—a vast expansion of the New Deal, especially in agriculture. Or alternatively huge loans to South America which could never be repaid unless South American goods were admitted to compete seriously with American products.

EVIDENTLY SUCH an enterprise would not be undertaken except as a last resort. For the moment American policy is set in the opposite direction—in the direction of world trade. But it still remains true that if all these efforts fail, if Europe is not pacified, if America decides to go into isolation after this war, the enormous project of reorganizing the whole economic foundation of this hemisphere will have to be faced.

That is where the problem of Canada would come in. The American people are looking northward at Canada today with greater interest than ever before, with admiration and yet with bewilderment. Why, they ask you over and over again in Washington, is Canada in this European war? You tell them as well as you can, but they still shake their heads. We are the only people in the whole hemisphere who have entered the war and to the American it seems admirable, heroic, but very curious. To the American, if not to the Canadian, Canada is primarily a part of North America, not of Europe.

THE UNITED STATES has implemented this theory by guaranteeing to protect Canada from invasion. The thing does not end there. If the United States finally recoils from Europe and decides on a policy of out-and-out isolation it will want Canada inside the western hemisphere.

The military necessity of this is perfectly obvious. Through Canada the United States is entirely exposed on the north. It could not permit such a gap in the ring of defences which would have to be thrown around North and South America.

This should not be misunderstood. The Americans do not want to take over Canada. "To us you are just another agricultural surplus," said one of the leading men of the government. "We don't want you." The American government has done everything within its power to indicate that it has no thought of interfering with Canada's foreign policies, its place in the British Empire and its decision to fight in Europe.

But this war is regarded in Washington as a kind of last test. If it settles nothing permanently and produces no sound peace, then the isolationism doctrine will crystallize more strongly than ever. Then, unquestionably, the United States would want to have a definite understanding with Canada about joint defence, about a reorganization of trade.

"We cannot understand," one of Mr. Roosevelt's ministers said, "why you people are not already in the Pan-American Union. I don't mean you should do anything disloyal to the British Empire, but surely you are a part of this hemisphere and could be in the union without altering your present status." And he asked whether Canada would ever consent to come into a future hemispheric arrangement, an economy of North and South America, if it were organized. That such a question should be asked by men so high up shows the kind of realities this country may have to face some day if the next peace is a failure, if world trade is not restored. One fact of life that Canadians can never ignore, whether they like it or not, is the American nation, our neighbor, our largest customer, and our final guarantee against invasion.

THE WESTERN hemispheric dream is a long way off yet, however. There is, as we have seen, the economic difficulty. There is, besides, a greater difficulty of politics, of race, of ideas. The United States wants to make this hemisphere safe for democracy, but South America is not a democracy. Moreover, the cultural ties, the deep instincts of the people, do not stem from America, but from Europe, from Spain. And even today, as the United States talks about the New World's freedom from the Old, a Fascist victory in Spain has had serious repercussions in South America. You can fight off armies or stop goods by tariff walls. It is next to impossible to stop the infection of ideas. The Fascist idea already seems to have infected parts of South America. Far closer than North and South America in all the larger instincts of the human being are the United States and the democracy of Britain, or even the democracy of France. There is the real hope of the world at large, and if it is finally shattered the attempt to make a new and safe civilization in this hemisphere will be a poor second choice.

However, anything can happen in a world like this. Mr. Wallace still does his homework on the Spanish language. Also he still throws harmless boomerangs that come right back where they started from.

(In his next article Mr. Hutchison will discuss the power and weakness of the New Deal and its tremendous effect on Canada.)

THE AGE OF WINGS

AMONG OTHER things which struck me most vividly on my recent trip was the solid way air travel is fitting itself into Canadian life. Once business men get the airway habit you cannot get them back to earth again for love or money. I met old friends who had never been in the air until the Trans-Canada was started and who now shuttle back and forth between Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal like suburban commuters used to go back and forth before the 1914 war.

I am not so sure it is just to save time. I met one chap who said he traveled by plane between the big cities to save the hours on the train. Yet he waited two whole days to get a seat on the plane when there was an unusually heavy rush.

The convenience of air travel was vividly brought home to me in Moncton, the easterly temporary terminus of the transcontinental Canadian line. I say "temporary" advisedly, because I know that neither Saint John or Halifax will rest till they succeed in getting themselves on the main line, on which they should be and must be if it is to become a really national service.

From Moncton to Montreal takes just two hours by plane. It takes a whole day and night by rail—and there are few more tiresome rail journeys in Canada.

TRAVELER'S NOTES

IN NOVA SCOTIA they not only catch fish but like to eat them. No hotel menu appears without two or three choices of fish for any of the three meals. Other parts of Canada are not so proud of their home-grown products. In Kelowna a couple of years ago the leading restaurant did not even offer peaches for consumption at the peak of the peach season, although Okanagan peaches are as fine as any in the world. Last week in Vernon I saw the store windows piled full of Florida grapefruit juice, and oranges from California and Texas, but there was no sign of the grape juice produced right on the spot—finer and cheaper than any I ever tasted.

From coast to coast, newspapers are better printed than they used to be. The weekly papers are improving year by year. Mergers have crushed out most of the personality from the dailies.

Better English

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "That isn't a circumstance compared to my experience."

2. What is the correct pronunciation of "romance"?

3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Insufficient, instantaneous, interruption.

4. What does the word "dormant" mean?

5. What is a word beginning with im that means "wanting power or strength"?

Answers

1. Say, "That is a trifle (or, a very slight matter) compared to my experience." 2. Preferred pronunciation is with accent on last syllable. 3. Instantaneous. 4. Appearing in a state of suspended animation; inactive. "Adversity has the effect of eliciting talents which, in prosperous circumstances, would have lain dormant."—Horace. 5. Impotent.

A CANADIAN FLAG

To the Editor: — If it were granted that a national flag should embody the history of the country it represents, as Mr. Hugh Savage of Duncan in the Victoria Daily Times quotes Gen. Smuts, it would be necessary to know of Canada's past and present constitutional position before attempting a design. Mr. Savage may be an authority on heraldry, I will not now question his knowledge of the subject, but he should devote some of his time to constitutional status. He writes: "Surely Dominion status preceded the sovereign nation. . ." But as neither he nor anyone else knows what "Dominion status" is how can it be said that it differed from the colonial status? If this so-called "Dominion status" is less than sovereignty, then a country having that status is a colony—perhaps a well developed colony, but nevertheless a colony. Until Canada obtained complete powers of government, both domestic and external, by the statute of Westminster in 1931, she was properly a colony. According to Mr. Savage Australia and New Zealand were of "Dominion status," the one in 1900 and the other in 1903, the years in which they adopted their flags. But the conference of 1907 was a "Colonial Conference," the Colonial Secretary was chairman and the countries represented were known as "self-governing colonies" and not as Dominions. So it is clear that Australia and New Zealand adopted their flags while they were recognized as being in the colonial stage, and without doubt they were [illegible] proper that they should adopt flags designed to recognize that status, and this was done by using the blue and the red ensigns with stars in the fly. Will Mr. Savage deny that a flag with the Union Jack in the upper staff quarter is one of usual colonial design?

Mr. Savage refers to a "British Dominion or nation," and then says that Canada is "free and independent," but if she is, and I agree with him, then the nation is no longer British, but is Canadian and her flag should be designed to assert this fact. He says that Canada "persisted in appropriating to herself the Union Jack." But from shortly after federation, and for many years, the flag flown from government buildings in Canada was not the Union Jack, but the red ensign with the Canadian coat of arms in the fly. This flag was also flown by the Canadian merchant marine long before it was authorized by the Admiralty. It was not formally adopted, but it had the insistent approval of the government of Sir John A. Macdonald. It was, of course, a colonial flag.

I will readily accept Mr. Savage's correction that the Union Jack is the flag of Ireland as well as of the United Kingdom (I supposed it would be still more correct to say of Northern Ireland), but I will not admit that it is "the only proper flag to fly on land in Canada as denoting Canada," as it does not denote Canada at all, but, as Mr. Savage himself states, the United Kingdom and Ireland. As he says that Canada is 'free and independent" of the United Kingdom, how could the flag possibly denote Canada?

Mr. Savage assumes correctly that I would prefer as a national flag of Canada one which did not include the Union Jack, but I recognize that this would probably be expecting too much, and consequently I would accord a place to it, but its position must not be in the upper staff quarter. This position is the place of honor in a flag, and surely Mr. Savage would not suggest that any country but Canada should occupy the place of honor on her own flag.

I stated in my last letter that if our flag has been Union Jack in the upper staff quarter it will be recognized by the people "as just another flag of much the same construction as those to which they have been accustomed for so many years. It will not impress them as our flag should with the fact that Canada's constitutional position has changed, and that she is the constitutional equal of all other sovereign states. . . It will tend to maintain and confirm the old colonial conception." Will Mr. Savage deny this? And will he say that if our flag is entirely of Canadian design, or having the British and French symbols in a less significant position, it would not draw to the attention of the people the change that has taken place from colony, or Dominion status if Mr. Savage prefers, to that of a "free and independent nation?" And, again, will Mr. Savage deny that "a flag symbolic of Canada and Canada only is perhaps the best agency to generate a patriotic feeling?" If he knows of any better method I would much appreciate him saying what it is. But perhaps he does not agree that a Canadian patriotic sentiment should be developed, even though Canada is "free and independent."

THE STORY OF ADVERTISING IN CANADA

By H. E. STEPHENSON and H. E. CARLTON McNAUGHT

Reviewed by Mr. John Murray Gibbon.

This chronicle of advertising during the last 50 years in Canada has been done so thoroughly by the authors that it is more than a mere history of advertising—it is a comprehensive social history of the period. We are informed, for instance, why patent medicines were in such demand in pioneer settlements where qualified doctors were few and far between, and are shown how the advertising of the great pharmaceutical firms has come to cooperate with the medical profession today. Another chapter of special interest is that dealing with the Canadian market, in which the five natural geographic zones of the Dominion are outlined, and an illuminating analysis is given of the influence of racial stocks on these zones. A wealth of illustrations adds value and interest to the book. The advertisements reproduced show better than anything else the transformation that has been effected in the costumes of Canadian men and women in the past 50 years. We realize how great has been the improvement not only in the standard of living, but also in the good taste of the surroundings in which we live. The transition of Canada from agriculture to manufacturing is visualized and an excellent case is made for the claim that advertising has helped to bring this about.

This is the kind of book that is essential to the business executive, and, as already indicated, it is also a valuable source of information to the student of social history and progress. The authors, H. E. Stephenson and Carlton McNaught are to be congratulated on an excellent piece of work.

For This Rolls-Royce

Model Phantom 2, 40-50, 7-passenger Coupe de Villa With Body by Thrapp & Maberley

The Rolls-Royce is recognized as "The World's Best Car," and this particular model is in every way a superb example of Rolls-Royce craftsmanship. The body, including fenders, is of aluminum throughout and it is finished in Lancaster green. The wheelbase is 150 inches and the weight 3,700 pounds. It has been privately owned and chaffeur driven. The mileage is only 19,000 miles.

While this was an exceptionally costly car (original price about $18,000), the executors are prepared to sell it at a fraction of this amount. The car may be seen at our showrooms and to facilitate disposal we will accept the buyer's present car in partial payment. For private use or taxi hire this is an opportunity such as may not again present itself in many years.

THE ARENA OF WAR

To the Editor:—I am afraid H. Cheritan Hilgate is suffering as I suffered during the first week of the war. For a week I listened to all war news over the radio, all day and nearly all night, until I had to quit. I now hear the morning and evening news 30 minutes daily and do not talk war, or think war, more than I am obliged, but put on a brave front, have a smile and a cheery word for all I meet. The drive for an arena is just 10 years too late, I know, but far better late than never. I wonder has Mr. Hilgate any family! I have one boy, and he certainly has let me know the opinion of the youth of Victoria. They consider it a place where people come to die "nice and quietly," and long for the time when they can get out and leave them to it, and go to some place where they can both see good sport, and take part in it.

I wonder did Mr. Hilgate ever drive around the back streets of the city on Saturday afternoon and see the boys playing roller-skate hockey? Pitiful, I think it—scratching around in the gutters like a bunch of fowls.

There has been quite a lot of vandalism here. Why? Because the boys have become so utterly fed up that they have felt like busting something, and have done it. Are they altogether to blame? In helping the youth we are helping the war. We are told that this is to be a long, protracted war. What does this mean? Why, the very boys we want to help now are the future men who will have to go and fight, risk and lose their lives so that we may live and "die nice and quietly."

H. R. FLETCHER.

THE BALKAN BOYS

To the Editor:—A radio announcer thinks that a sort of carving committee is now being formed to give the Balkans a badly-needed shave and haircut. (Some people think that these people are called Balkans because they are the champion balkers of all time.)

It appears that Adolf, Joseph and Benito are the self-chosen lads to do this job. They say that two other nations have grabbed a quarter of the world for themselves and it is therefore up to us to get ours while the going is good.

Adolf has just been talking with Benito and said something like this:

You did not get much in the last war to make the world safe for democracy, but you can get something good this time, you can get a bit of Empire which will be more satisfying than selling macaroni and scenery. (Benito thought that a bit of Empire would be great, but how to explain drinking a friendly cup of tea with Joe to the satisfaction of His Holiness the Pope?)

"Look here, Benito, you can easily see that if we three do not do this job immediately the other two will jump in, buy up half a dozen countries before breakfast and continue to dictate to all the world, so it is now or never and may the devil take the hindmost, meaning the other two."

Last year the Turks received 80,000,000 pounds to oil the works, so in view of the foregoing it is to be expected that they will soon need some more fixing. They look like the Mexican generals the oil companies used to buy—the trouble was they did not stay bought.

AN ARENA IN WAR

To the Editor:—Being a subscriber to your paper, I feel bound to answer some very pessimistic letters that have appeared in print during the last few days re the Arena.

The eternal question seems to be the waste of money during a crisis. Can anyone explain to me how the building of an Arena can be counted as waste.

I feel that it is an investment which can not be surpassed, and should be supported by the whole community.

One very conscientious woman suggested that the Arena at this time would be next to criminal, but in the same breath she suggests a memorial to the memory of our late beloved Governor-General.

What could be a more fitting memorial than an Arena where young Canada could learn to be the future backbone of a Canada that Lord Tweedsmuir loved so well.

GEORGE REDHEAD.

MISCHIEF PLOTTERS

To the Editor:—The meeting of Hitler and Mussolini is very significant from a Scriptural point of view. Concerning the actions of these two rulers it says: "Both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table, but they shall not prosper. For yet the end shall be at the time appointed." The mischief they will do. They will no doubt attempt to lock the Mediterranean with the occupation of Spain. The third act, and the final?

STANLEY WESTERN.

AN ARENA IN WAR

To the Editor:—In answer to Messrs. Abraham and Willcox, whose letters were published in Thursday's Times, I would like to ask them why this is not as good a time as any to build an arena?

Surely if enough public-spirited citizens are willing to subscribe to this worthy cause it will be a success—war or no war.

Prairie Woman As Lone Member

TORONTO (CP) — Canada's next House of Commons again will have a woman member although the two women members at dissolution will not be in the next house.

On the basis of returns still incomplete today, Mrs. D. W. Neilsen of North Battleford, Sask., will have the honor of being the lone woman parliamentarian. She will have also another distinction—the only Unity member in the Commons.

Mrs. Neilsen will succeed Miss Agnes MacPhail, veteran U.F.O.-Labor member, who met defeat in yesterday's balloting in Grey-Bruce, and Mrs. George Black of Yukon, who did not seek re-election.

Mrs. Neilsen's victory was at the expense of C. R. McIntosh, Liberal, her only opponent.

Other unsuccessful women candidates yesterday were Miss R. B. J. Adams, Verdun; Miss Mary Crawford, Edmonton West; Mrs. Borah Dymond, Toronto-Rosedale; Mrs. L. Lucas, Melville; Mrs. Margaret MacNab, Kamloops; Mrs. R. R. McBride, Macleod, and Mrs. Rose Wilkinson, Calgary West.

PIPE BAND'S DANCE

The pipe band of the First Battalion Canadian Scottish Regiment, C.A.S.F., will hold their 10th annual dance in the A.O.F. Hall, Cormorant Street, on Friday evening commencing at 9, and continuing until the early hours.

Mr. Tom Wallace well-known piper of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society, will act as M.C. with Irvine's Orchestra supplying the music. Refreshments will be served and a large attendance is anticipated.

A parliamentary career of over 19 years as a U.F.O. Labor member for Grey-Bruce, Ontario, came to a close yesterday when Miss Agnes Macphail, above, went down to defeat, losing her seat to W. E. Harris, the Liberal standard-bearer.

Pioneers Observe Golden Wedding

Attesting to the esteem in which they are held in the community, Mr. and Mrs. James Stuart Yates of Langford were showered with felicitations and good wishes, as well as many tangible tokens of affection, on the occasion of their golden wedding day yesterday.

About 80 guests, including representatives of many pioneer families and of the legal profession, of which Mr. Yates is perhaps the oldest practicing member in Canada, attended the reception held by the venerable couple at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Stuart Yates, Roslyn Road, Oak Bay.

Flowers, the gift of friends far and wide, including a magnificent basket from Mr. Yates' office staff, adorned the reception rooms. The guests were received by Mrs. R. S. Stuart Yates, wearing a graceful floor-length gown of floral chiffon, who was assisted as hostess by her sister, Miss M. E. Morrison, in a floor-length gown of beige lace. Mrs. Yates Sr. wore a gown of Elizabeth blue lace, with a corsage bouquet of golden rosebuds.

Mrs. A. E. deL. Nunns and Mrs. Yates' sister-in-law, Mrs. Philip Austin, presided at the beautifully appointed tea table, on which were used a handsome cloth and doilies of Maltese lace, centred with the wedding cake, flanked by crystal vases of gold-hued roses and gold tapers in crystal holders, assisting in serving were Mrs. John Abel and Miss Margaret Yates, granddaughters, and Miss Dorothy Austin, a niece of the guests of honor. The Misses Maureen, Beverly and little Denise Yates, daughters of the host and hostess, opened the door to the visitors and had charge of the guest book.

Dress Appreciation Course Arranged

Miss Ruth Fields will be the speaker at the next meeting in the "Preparation for Marriage" talks offered by the Y.W.C.A. each Monday evening at 8.

The orchestra, under the direction of Val Carson, played to a pleasantly-filled ballroom of about 100 guests. At midnight supper was served, buffet-style, after which dancing was resumed until 1 o'clock. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Robbins were the winners of the amusing games played during the evening. Mrs. T. Thomson presided when a buffet supper was served later in the evening. An Easter color scheme of mauve and yellow was used for the table, the bride's cake in the centre being surrounded by vases of blooms in the prevailing colors and lighted by yellow tapers. Among the many lovely flowers received from friends here and in the prairies, of special interest was the lovely bowl of pink rosebuds which centred the tea-table, and which were sent by Mr. N. Longman, one of the guests at their wedding in 1884.

They have three sons, A. G. English, on the old farm in Harding, Man., H. O. English of 2832 Dewdney Avenue, Victoria, and George A. WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25¢.

Sailors Entertain Britannia W.A.

An enthusiastic audience filled the clubrooms of the Britannia branch, Canadian Legion, last night, when the visiting sailors' concert party gave one of their popular programs, the affair being arranged by the Britannia branch Woman's Auxiliary.

Petty Officer Ernest Oakes was chairman and introduced the artists in an amusing manner, and also took part in a skit, "Please, Teacher," in which he was the headmaster. Leading Seamen Weaver and Dannie Donovan, and Able Seamen Harvey and Jarvis were the students.

Leading Seaman Danny Donovan and his harmonica band played a number of lively airs and popular songs in which the audience joined heartily.

Other items on the program included: "The Seer," by Leading Seaman Weaver; pianoforte selections by Leading Stoker Moorehouse, who also ably accompanied the men in their acts, and mouth organ duets by Petty Officer Martin and his staff.

At the close the members of the concert party were entertained at supper by the W.A.

Over 300 young people danced at the Crystal Garden last evening, when the Catholic Youth Organization, representative of the Victoria, Esquimalt and Oak Bay branches, held its second annual social evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the C.Y.O. bursary fund.

The C.Y.O. sign glittered behind the orchestra dais, in front of which was banked spring flowers with pleasing effect.

Commodore and Mrs. V. G. Brodeur and Chief of Police J. A. McLellan and Mrs. McLellan were the patrons. Miss Bernadette Colbert was the general convener, assisted by a committee of members from the three branches.

A buffet supper was served in the lower lounge and during the evening novelties were distributed, which added to the fun of the party.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE, MT. TOLMIE

The glory of the Lord was there
Upon that mountain side,
Where folks had gathered e'er the morn,
Her gates had opened wide.

Had gathered there for prayer and praise,
To greet the Risen Lord,
Who broke the bonds of sin and death,
As written in His word.

This is the day the Lord hath made,
Be glad, let all rejoice!
Glad Hallelujahs rend the air
With heart and soul and voice.

"All hail the power of Jesu's Name,
Let angels prostrate fall."
Was wafted on the morning air,
By people one and all.

Then "Christ the Lord is risen today,"
Again the people sang,
With voices lifted to the skies,
[illegible]

"Jesus shall reign where'er the sun,"
Oh! such a joy was mine
To take a part in this great song
This happy Easter time.

Come, Jesus, reign within my heart,
Oh! take it now from me,
On this glad Sunday Easter Morn
May I be risen with Thee.

VICTORIA WOMAN'S HUSBAND DROWNS

David Hughes, of East Cowes, husband of the former Miss Celia Lewis, well-known Victoria girl, was drowned off the Isle of Wight today, her mother, Mrs. Mary Lewis, 1324 Denman Street, was advised by cable this morning.

The cablegram conveyed no more information than the fact Mr. Hughes had drowned. He worked on a lighthouse boat in the Trinity Service attending Isle of Wight lighthouses. He was 30 years of age. It is thought here that his boat may have struck a mine, but there has been no confirmation of this.

Mrs. Hughes left Victoria last year and married Mr. Hughes in Wales on the morning of Christmas Day. They made their home at East Cowes, Isle of Wight.

The deceased is survived by his wife, a widowed mother and a brother.

Saskatchewan Group Plans Masquerade

The Saskatchewan Association of Victoria will close its winter season on April 1 with a masquerade ball in the A.O.F. Hall, Cormorant Street. Arrangements have been made to cater to about 400 guests. Three judges have been chosen to award the prizes for the best costumes. This gathering will end an active season of the association as many visitors will be returning to their prairie homes after the first week in April.

A general meeting will be held in the middle of April to elect officers for the year and members will be notified of the place and time of the meeting. The association has filled a long-felt want among ex-residents of Saskatchewan in Victoria and the social gatherings have been held solely for the purpose of providing entertainment and a means of meeting old and new friends. The gatherings have resulted in a number of persons deciding to settle permanently in the district.

Quebec Women Wait On Vote Question

By R. K. TAYLOR
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC (CP) — Women of Quebec await the next development in the vexed questions of whether or not they should get the vote in provincial elections.

Like women of other provinces they already have the vote in Dominion elections on the same basis as men.

Though Quebec women now have no vote in provincial contests it is a fact of history that women of this province were the first in the British Empire to vote in general elections. That was between 1809 and 1834. In the latter year the Assembly of Lower Canada put a stop to woman suffrage, passing an act limiting the voting privilege to men.

Following Confederation in 1867, Alberta women were the first of their sex in Canada to vote. This was in the provincial election of June 7, 1917. Then other Canadian provinces, one after another—except Quebec—granted the ballot to women in provincial elections. The franchise was first extended to women generally in Dominion campaigns in the general election of 1921.

For the last 20 years Quebec women who wanted to exercise the franchise in provincial elections have fought for it in a campaign that has ranged from muddy Quebec fair grounds to fashionable drawing-rooms, and from the Quebec Legislature to Buckingham Palace.

They believed it within reach when it was announced in the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the present session of the Legislature that a bill would be introduced to that effect.

CHURCH OPPOSITION

However, on March 2, Rodrique Cardinal Villeneuve listed in an official communique four reasons why he is "not in favor" of woman suffrage.

The communique said His Eminence believed he was expressing in the document "the common feeling of the bishops of the province."

The reasons given were:

1. Because it goes against unity and hierarchy of families.
2. Because its exercise exposes women to all the passions and adventures of electoralism.
3. Because, in fact, it appears to us that the very great majority of the women of the province do not desire it.
4. Because social reforms, economic reforms, hygienic reforms, etc., which are advanced to commend the right of woman suffrage, can be obtained just as well through the influence of women's organizations on the edge of politics.

Speculation on the effect of this statement was instant. In the Legislature, on March 5, opposition leader Duplessis asked what the government would do with respect to the forecast legislation.

PREMIER'S REPLY

Premier Godbout replied: "I do not know exactly when the bill will be submitted to the House or in what form it will appear, but I can tell my honorable friend that in the present case, as in other legislation, we will not exploit elevated sentiments in this province for the benefit of petty politics, and, strange as it may seem to him, there are still some people, who, once they have given their word, keep it."

If the bill is introduced and passes the Assembly, where many rural members have been traditionally opposed to such a measure, it will still have to pass the Legislative Council of Quebec's bicameral legislature.

Chambers Wins Nanaimo Seat By Big Majority

The Nanaimo seat in the House of Commons went Liberal yesterday for the first time in 29 years and it was a young man, Alan Chambers, who carried the party's banner in the country-wide sweep.

There were a few scattered polls to hear from today but Mr. Chambers was assured of a handsome majority over F. S. Cunliffe, Conservative, his nearest opponent. Ronald Grantham, representing the C.C.F., which won the seat in 1935, was running third.

Following was the count for 135 out of 146 polls: Chambers, 10,180; Cunliffe, 7,063; Grantham, 6,239; Major A. H. Jukes, New Democracy, 448; W. F. Povah, Independent, 182.

It was a personal triumph for Mr. Chambers, a resident of Saanich, who entered the field first in 1935 and ran a close third. He has worked assiduously since then in the interests of the riding and played a part in Canadian affairs as head of the youth committee of the national unemployment commission.

By his victory Nanaimo followed Victoria back into the Liberal column after more than a quarter century on the other side of the political fence. Victoria went Liberal in 1937 and remained there yesterday.

From all parts of the far-flung Nanaimo riding Mr. Chambers was endorsed. He had majorities in Saanich, in Nanaimo City, in the Metchosin area, in the Cowichan Valley and most of the Gulf Islands.

Mr. Chambers received his first congratulations at Liberal headquarters in the city, where he watched the returns. Party workers gave him a mighty cheer when at 8.15 in the evening he had established sufficient lead lead to guarantee his election.

"I thank you all," he said in his acknowledgement. "I deeply respect the trust the people have placed in me."

Later when successive returns rolled his majority up past the 3,000 mark Mr. Chambers gave the following statement:

"I want to thank all those who have given of their time and their effort so loyally in the past few months.

"The people of this constituency have honored me with their confidence and trust tonight. It will be my task to do my best for Canada, and for the people of Nanaimo riding.

"The tribute paid by the people of this nation to Prime Minister Mackenzie King in the election makes me feel that the campaign on his government's behalf has been well worth while. I will give the government every assistance in my power to carry on to victory in our struggle alongside the Allies. I shall not overlook the necessity of planning beforehand to meet the problems that will come after the war."

With the exception of Ladysmith, Mr. Chambers secured major leads in virtually all the larger areas.

Brother in City

Results in the Ontario constituency of York West held great interest last night for Anthony Adamson, 679 Island Road, for his brother, H. R. Adamson, was the National Government candidate there and was elected in a seat formerly Liberal.

Mr. and Mrs. Adamson, whose home is at Port Credit, Ontario, are enjoying a holiday in Victoria and will return home in May.

HOW TO OVERCOME ITCHING PILES

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from Modern Pharmacy and Cunningham Drug Store—or any druggist—a package of Hemroid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemroid is highly recommended, is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

Mayhew Is Given Record Vote In Victoria

Rolling up the largest vote ever gained by a candidate in Victoria, Robert Wellington Mayhew, Liberal, was re-elected to Parliament yesterday. Mr. Mayhew won the seat in the 1937 by-election after the city had returned Conservatives for more than a quarter of a century.

Mr. Mayhew was given a majority of 4,747 over his nearest opponent, Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown, Conservative, and a plurality of 1,489 over the two opposition candidates. Kenneth McAllister, the C.C.F. nominee, will lose his deposit.

The final count, which includes all the civilian vote and the advance vote, but not the active service vote, was as follows: Mayhew, 13,170; Brown, 8,423; McAllister, 3,258. The total vote, 24,851, established a record for the riding.

Mr. Mayhew's election was conceded by tabulators soon after the counting began as poll after poll gave him majorities. By 8 in the evening Brigadier Brown visited Liberal headquarters and congratulated Mr. Mayhew.

The tabulation showed that out of 137 polls Mr. Mayhew won 125, with Brigadier Brown slightly ahead in the other 12. Mr. McAllister trailed in every precinct but six in which his vote was higher than that of the Conservative candidate.

IN ALL DISTRICTS

The James Bay, Victoria West, Fernwood, Haultain, Foul Bay, Fairfield and Hillside districts, and most of Esquimalt, went strongly behind the Liberal candidate. In the centre of the city the fight was fairly close, with Mr. Mayhew having the edge. He also carried the Rockland Avenue section. Brigadier Brown showed his main strength in the Oak Bay area, where he captured nine precincts, but in the total for this section Mr. Mayhew still had a small advantage.

At Liberal headquarters, where victory songs were started early, Mr. Mayhew was given a tremendous ovation by the party workers. When called on for a speech, he said:

WINNER'S SPEECH

"The victory belongs to you, not to me. In any race a willing horse is not enough. He must be well driven.

"I am very glad Canada has given Premier Mackenzie King the mandate he wanted. I interpret it as meaning they want the government to put the full resources of Canada at the back of the Mother Country in fighting the war.

"The answer from every province conveys much. We have said to Quebec: 'We go hand in hand with you for a united Canada.'

"I am glad the C.C.F. has made no progress. Not that I have anything against them, but I do not think they have a place in things just now in view of the attitude they have taken toward the war. When the war is over we will meet them on their issues."

Mr. Mayhew also issued a public message to the electors in which he said his services were open to all, and he would do his best to justify the confidence placed in him. He expressed again thanks to his supporters, to the press and to the radio for the part they had played in the campaign.

There was little celebration at Conservative headquarters atop the Campbell Building. Sandwiches and coffee had been prepared for a victory, but supporters stayed only long enough to thank Brigadier Brown, and listen to speeches by Prime Minister King and Dr. Manion.

NOT DISMAYED

Brigadier Brown issued the following statement to the press:

"I called on the successful candidate immediately. I said that although beaten I was not dismayed. I am very glad that the third party across Canada has been badly beaten, for at all times I consider a third party has only stood for slowing down and interfering with proper legislation, resulting sometimes in undesirable compromises.

"I am very sorry for Dr. Manion and the Conservative Party and regret that Canada did not follow the rest of the Empire in forming national governments in a time of great national emergency.

"I wish to thank whole-heartedly the nearly 8,500 citizens of Victoria who had confidence in me personally, and in the Conservative cause. I also wish to thank heartily my campaign manager, Fred Willis, and the rest of the loyal workers who for the past six years have stood by the Conservative Party in days of adversity."

C.C.F. TO CARRY ON

Kenneth McAllister, C.C.F., made the following statement:

"For the membership of the C.C.F. I wish to thank those people who saw fit to vote for our policies. The supporters who worked so hard, completely without remuneration, are the real patriots of this country before all thought of personal gain.

"I can still say, with the knowledge of being right, that all civilized countries must change their social and economic set-up. That is the only alternative to the present persistent breakdown. Neither King Canute nor a victory at the polls for Mackenzie King can turn back the tide. It is my intention and that of the C.C.F. to continue to work for a Canada fit for ordinary people to live in, free of party patronage and feudal rights for wealthy individuals. I commend a close scrutiny of the future actions of the King government from this point of view to all those who voted so freely for him."

Neill Scores Great Win in Comox-Alberni

The veteran Independent candidate of Comox-Alberni, A. W. Neill, will go back to Parliament for his sixth consecutive term.

A. W. NEILL
M.P.-elect

In the government's sweep yesterday Mr. Neill, who has generally supported the Liberals and was not opposed by either of the two major parties, ran up a big majority over his only opponent, Harrison Brown of the C.C.F., a former newspaperman.

With 22 polls to here from out of 146, Mr. Neill had rolled up 9,615 votes to 3,656 and Mr. Brown was in danger of losing his deposit.

Mr. Neill, whose scattered riding extends from Cape Scott on the northern tip of Vancouver Island to just above Nanaimo, received majorities in practically all the large centres. One exception was the Zeballos gold mining valley where Mr. Brown had an edge by 258 to 225.

Port Alberni gave a thumping majority, 1,471 to 374 for the member-elect. Alberni town went 730 to 137 in his favor. In Parksville he had 205 to 53, in Errington 80 to 16, in Nanoose 114 to 63 and in Lantzville 213 to 108.

Cumberland registered a 517 to 291 vote in Neill's favor and Courtenay followed suit with 920 to 395. The Comox vote was 276 to 87 and Campbell River 251 to 115. Qualicum Beach went 217 to 14 and Little Qualicum 66 to 6 for him.

With the indication that the scattered polls yet to report would give similar endorsement to Mr. Neill the veteran member, now in his 72nd year, appeared assured of the biggest majority he has ever received in his long political career. Mr. Neill has been in Parliament since 1921. Prior to that he was three times elected to the provincial legislature for the district.

Clean Kidneys of Poisons and Stop Getting Up Nights

Healthy Kidneys Mean Happier, Longer Life

When you can get for 40 cents a time-tested, efficient and harmless stimulant and diuretic that will purge from your kidneys the waste matter, poisons and acid that are now doing you harm, why do you let them continue robbing you of your restful sleep by getting up thru the night.

Other symptoms of weak kidneys and irritated bladder may be backache, puffy eyes, leg cramps, moist palms, burning or scanty passage.

PARIS—Both Calais and Dunkirk were visited by German airplanes this morning, but neither town was damaged. Six bombs were dropped on Dunkirk and one on Calais.

ROME—Every measure possible has been taken by the Italian government preparatory to the beginning of hostilities by Italy on the side of the Allies.

The Victoria High School Cadet Battalion will hold their fourth annual ball at the Victoria High School on Tuesday evening, April 6. The chaperones are Mesdames A. Robinson, S. J. Willis, H. C. Hanington, George Jay, M. Jenkins and R. Hamilton.

An important change has been made in the management of the Victoria Baseball Club in the appointment of Alex MacKenzie, well-known Victorian, who will hereafter have charge of the business end of the club.

Rain Is Only Water

In parts of French equatorial Africa, the short rainy season provides the only water available during the entire year. Natives collect this water and pour it into the hollow trunks of baobab trees, where it remains fresh during the entire long dry season. A tree may hold between 500 and 1,000 gallons.

Spiders have eight eyes.

Calgary Wins Second Clash

CALGARY (CP) — Calgary Stampeders, backed by the brilliant goaltending of Art Rice-Jones and favored with an edge on speed, today were definitely in front in their best-of-five hockey series against Trail Smoke Eaters for the right to enter the Dominion senior semifinal series against either Port Arthur Bear Cats, 1939 Allan Cup winners, or Moose Jaw Millers.

Stampeders clinched a 5 to 2 verdict last night on a four-goal third period splurge for their second win of the series, but the first game, a 3 to 0 triumph at Trail Saturday night was protested by Trail and the British Columbia Amateur Hockey Association on the ground Calgary used too many imports.

Smoke Eaters, with their backs to the wall for the third game here Thursday in event they lose the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association vote on the protest, rested today in the hope their star first stringers, Bunny Dame, Joe Benoit and Ab Cronie, would regain the form that made them the outstanding trio of the West Kootenay Senior League this season.

DESMARAIS HERO

From the opening whistle this reliable trio were back-checked continually, principally by Tony Desmarais, formerly of Regina, who played a hero's role by breaking up [illegible] the third period.

Four minutes later Cam Burke put Calgary ahead 3 to 1 and he added another two minutes after Ab Cronie scored his second goal of the night for Trail. Mike Patrick put on the finishing touch with only 30 seconds remaining, beating Duke Scodellaro on a solo effort.

Davy Duchak, Moose Jaw product who reached stardom with Smoke Eaters when they won the Dominion championship in 1938, scored the first Calgary counter in less than 10 minutes.

Smart passing by the British Columbians enabled them to beat Rice-Jones after 45 minutes to end the net minder's shutout record at 205 minutes and 26 seconds. Rice-Jones had not been scored upon since the third game of the Alberta finals with Turner Valley Oilers. Joe Benoit and Ab Cronie each drew an assist on Dame's goals.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

THE OLD GUY with the scythe never fails to get his man in the end, but he's having difficulty in waving to the sidelines a handful of major leaguers who just won't give up. Few ball players are very effective once they get beyond 35, but both te National and American Leagues this year list a number of durable exceptions, most of which are pitchers.

Oldest combatant is Charley Root, Chicago Cub pitcher of 41 summers, who broke in with the St. Louis Browns in 1921. In 15 subsequent years in the big time, after spending two seasons each with Terre Haute and Los Angeles, Root has won 577 games and lacks just two frames of having worked 3,000 innings. He gained an even split a year ago, with eight and eight.

Lanky Bob Grove of the Boston Red Sox has been shooting his southpaw slants over the plate ever since he broke in with Martinsburg of the Blue Ridge League in 1925. Sore arm and all, 40-year-old Robert Mose won 15 and lost only four last year for the Sox, and indications are he'll do just as well this trip.

In 1923 the Chicago White Sox lured Ted Lyons away from Baylor University at Waco, Tex., and the 40-year-old right-hander has been with the club ever since. He was effective enough in 1939 to win 14 while losing only six.

Gabby Hartnett, also 40, spent just one year with Worcester of the Eastern League in 1921 and then hopped to the Chicago Cubs, for whom he has been catching for 18 years, a record for service with one outfit.

At the age of 40 Sylvester Johnson is still dishing 'em up for the Phillies, for whom he won eight and lost eight a year ago.

Johnny Cooney broke in as a pitcher with the old Boston Braves when he was 20 years old, back in 1920. After shuttling back and forth between the mound, outfield and first base he went to the garden for good in 1934 and now is rated one of the greatest defensive pickets in the game.

Clint Brown is still winning for the White Sox at 37. The New York Giants' Carl Hubbell, at the same age, is the most respected southpaw in the National League.

After kicking around in Chicago, Detroit, Washington, Boston and Cincinnati, 37-year-old Al Simmons comes back to the Philadelphia Athletics' outfield, where he first attained stardom.

Earl Averill, Detroit gardener, is 37. So is the Tigers' Charley Gehringer. Charley Ruffing of the New York Yanks is 36 but still the best all-around hurler in the American League. Washington's Sam West is 36. So is Pepper Martin of the St. Louis Cards.

Baseball isn't entirely a young man's game.

Say Louis Will Cash 'Paychek'

NEW YORK (AP)—If all the puns on Joe Louis cashing his (Johnny) Paychek in Madison Square Garden, Friday night, were laid end to end and covered with a foot or two of solid earth it would serve them exactly right.

No one to date, except those plentifully supplied with rose-colored glasses in Johnny's own camp has been brash enough to see how this particular Paychek can help bouncing when the Brown Bomber goes to work in his 10th defence of the world heavyweight championship.

And thus agreed, the boys are yelling about it in "the funniest ways possible."

The betting men have installed Louis favorite at odds ranging from 1 to 5 all the way to 1 to 8 to cancel Paychek in one way or another.

Hon. John Hart Golf President

Hon. John Hart was re-elected president of the Victoria Golf club for the 1940-41 term, at the annual meeting held last night in the clubhouse.

Roger Peachey was named captain to succeed Sandy Watson. Members of the committee follow: J. H. D. Benson, R. R. Brough, A. E. Ford, W. A. R. Hadley, S. A. Haynes, W. B. Leach, H. H. Shandley and E. D. Todd. R. C. Field was named auditor.

Secretary Capt. J. V. Perks attend his 20th meeting in his official capacity.

Before the meeting finished, the various annual statements were presented and all were adopted as satisfactory. The financial report showed a substantial balance. A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officers and also to the club's staffs, indoor and outdoor.

RAINBOW RIFLE CLUB

The Rainbow Rifle Club held its weekly shoot on Saturday, the results out of a possible 100 being: Class A—N. Anderson 99, W. Acland 99, R. Ferguson 98, P. Mackenzie 98, H. Davies 97, G. McAnerin 97, W. Brown 95, F. Greensmith 93. Class C—E. Grant 76.

During 1939, "TACA" (Transportes Aereos Centro Americanos) carried over 15,000,000 pounds of air freight at a profit without a bit of government subsidy. Also, 25,000 passengers were carried during the year.

The planes used for transporting air freight in Central America are specially built. Huge double doors, large enough to load a horse or drive a tractor through are built into the plane.

Washington Is Improved Squad

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Some consider the Washington Senators the most improved ball club in the American League, and Manager Bucky Harris thinks the 1940 model perhaps is the best in 10 years. Not that Bucky is harboring any illusions about a pennant.

Harris has one of the fastest clubs in baseball. It isn't a heavy-hitting outfit, and its pitching is only nominal. But it boasts a set of boys who can run the bases like stake horses.

The Senators finished sixth last year, a notch lower than in 1938. In 1938 they had Zeke Bonura playing first base and knocking in 114 runs. The moral being plain, they are dickering with the New York Giants now and trying to get Zeke back.

As the Senators badly need men who can drive in runs, and as Jimmy Wasdell flivvered at first last year, they couldn't much help being an improved team with Bonura in the batting order.

GOOD OUTFIELD

Harris considers his outfield set-up a good one, with Gerald Walker in left, Case in centre and Lewis in right. Jim Bloodworth proved himself a capable second-sacker last season and Cecil Travis is going good in his new third-base position. Bucky is a little worried, though, about the trowing arm of his new shortstop from Minneapolis, Jim Porfahl.

The club has a first-rate catcher in Rick Ferrell. The only reason it cannot be considered of first division calibre is its lack of high-class starting pitchers. Dutch Leonard, the veteran knuckleballer who won 20 games last season, is a good one, but after that Harris mostly must rely on his two southpaws, Ken Chase and Joe Kraukauskas.

The use of plywood to cover wings of airplanes is reported to be superior to the usual type of covering because of the higher degree of elasticity and because of its ability to absorb excessive gust loads without permanent set.

CAME THROUGH FOR LESTER—No doubt the proudest man in hockey last night was Les Patrick after his younger son Murray (Muzz), above, scored the goal to give the New York Rangers a 1 to 0 victory over Boston Bruins in the fourth of the Stanley Cup playdowns. The win enabled the Broadway Blues to tie the series at two games apiece.

Canadian Football

Semifinal Carded

Central Park is expected to be a popular spot among sportgoers Saturday when Dominoes oppose Fairfield Blue Devils in the semifinal game of the Junior Canadian Football League championship for the Sons of Canada Trophy.

The game will start at 3. A midnight league match will precede it at 1.45 with Centrals and St. Louis College playing.

A lot will be at stake in the junior fixture, and consequently a large crowd is expected. The winner of the game will play V.H.S. Alumni in the final game a week Saturday.

On top of that, the winner of the final game will have the Vancouver Meralomas, mainland junior champs, to contend with here April 13, when the B.C. championship title will be decided.

Dominoes, coached by Sid Anderson, who beat Alumni 16 to 0 in the final league game two weeks ago, and then who fell to defeat 17 to 5 at the hands of the same team Good Friday, will be battling for a chance to get another crack at the leaders.

Although they have beat Blue Devils in their league get-together, it is expected that things will not be quite so easy this time. The Fairfield squad has shown much improvement during the last few weeks, and will have their strongest team in uniform for the struggle.

The line, which has been the weak point, has been under extensive training. Coaches Jim Skellern and Brother P. B. Whalen have made some switching along the front row, and are confident that it will hold the Dominoes.

DOMINOES DECIDE TO PLAY TOOKES

Executive of the Dominoes Basketball Club went into a huddle last night and decided to accept the challenge of Vancouver Tookes for an exhibition series. First game will be played on the mainland Saturday night, and the second encounter at the Willows Sports Centre the following week-end.

This decision reversed the general opinion of the club officials earlier yesterday.

Tookes were runners-up to Maple Leafs for the mainland league championship, carrying the champions to the limit in a five game playoff.

MEDWICK SIGNS

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Joe Medwick, slugging outfielder, voluntarily signed his 1940 contract with St. Louis Cardinals last night, ending a long and stubborn holdout siege. Medwick was reported to have signed at the Cardinals' terms for $18,000.

The new Timm two-piece low wing type training plane is the newest of the pioneer molded planes. The manufacturing method is estimated to save about 25 per cent man hours. Powered with a 160-horsepower engine, the top speed is about 137 miles an hour.

First bout will start at 8.30.

Fighting Rangers Tie Playoff With Boston

To Make 1940 Softball Plans

Plans for the 1940 softball season for mainland and island clubs will be made Sunday afternoon in the Dominion Hotel at 2.30 when the annual meeting of the officials and association representatives from the lower island, mid-island and lower mainland will attend.

Prior to the B.C. meeting, the executive of the Lower Island Softball Association will go into a huddle to discuss matters to be brought before the provincial body.

The lower island association is not in a friendly mood toward the provincial group owing to treatment received last year. Its chief grievance is in the failure to bring the B.C. men's and women's senior A playoffs to a successful conclusion.

Two Victoria teams, New Method Laundrymen and Cardinals laid claim to these titles, but no satisfactory decision was ever received from the B.C. officials.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

The provincial meeting will discuss the formation of an international league between Vancouver Island, Port Angeles and Port Townsend, Wash.

In local softball circles, present indications point to a four-team circuit, with Victoria Longshoremen, Cameron Lumber, Ken-Tractors and Douglas Tire likely entries.

Increase in the army personnel here is expected to result in a good soldier entry in the various divisions of the local league. If that is not possible, steps may be taken to form a special military division for soldier nines.

50 SCHOOL BOYS BOX AT DUNCAN

Fifty schoolboy boxers, ranging from 50 to 180 pounds, will be seen in action in the Cowichan district school boxing championship tournament in Duncan on Friday and Saturday nights.

Preliminary matches will be seen Friday night starting at 7.30 and the finals will be staged Saturday commencing at 8, in the Duncan school gym.

Under the sponsorship of the Duncan Kinsmen Club, the tournament is expected to attract followers of the square ring game from all parts of the island.

Twenty-five of the 50 boxers to see action will be from the Fairbridge Farm School. These boys from various parts of England are reported to be naturals in the game and are favored to carry off a good proportion of the honors.

Chairman of the schoolboy boxing tournament is Buck Kennett of Duncan.

Muzz Patrick Fires Home Only Goal

NEW YORK (CP) — Consult the records and the only conclusion available is that Boston Bruins will win their Stanley Cup semifinal against the New York Rangers in seven games—the limit.

The records show that the Rangers' 1 to 0 victory last night, tieing the series at two games apiece, was to be expected—for hadn't they gone 10 games on home ice without defeat by the league champions and cup defenders? And, by the same token, the Bruins should win the fifth game in Boston tomorrow night, for the Rangers haven't won a game there in nine starts over two seasons.

Murray Patrick of Rangers and Eddie Wiseman of Bruins have been breaking up the games. Murray, son of boss Lester, did it last night, punching home a 33-foot shot at 10.54 of the third period as Goalie Frankie Brimsek's vision was blinded by the players bunched in front of his cage.

TOUGH ON BOSTON

Muzz, as young Patrick is popularly known to his legion of friends, made his fourth goal of the season a "million-dollar" one. As a matter of fact it is the second counter Patrick has smashed through Brimsek in the series. And he only scored two goals during the 48 league games.

Patrick has been dynamite to Boston in more ways than one. Fans will long remember his outburst last season when he went to work on the supposedly toughest player in the league, Eddie Shore, and gave him a sound lesson in just how one should use his dukes. That night Patrick exploded the idea Shore was too tough to handle, and ruined his reputation as the "bad man" of the league.

The dashing, rugged son of Lester has proven himself one of the finest defensive players in the league this year, his second full-time season in the big-time, and in the playoff games he has shown his goal-scoring ability when the chips are down.

The sixth game of the series, to qualify one of the clubs for the final against either Detroit or Toronto, will be played here Saturday night and a seventh, if necessary, in Boston Sunday night.

Patrick's goal, set up after Phil Watson and Dutch Hiller scrambled around the Bruins' defence zone to get the puck back to the Ranger defenceman, broke up the toughest and closest game of the series, gave Davie Kerr his 10th shutout of the season and his third in a row over the Bruins on home ice.

The season's biggest crowd—16,504—saw the game.

Summary

First period—No score. Penalties: Watson, Shewchuck, Bauer, Hextall.

Second period—No score. Penalties: Hextall, Crawford, M. Colville.

Third period—1, Rangers, M. Patrick (Watson, Hiller), 10.40. Penalty: Heller.

TORONTO HAS TROUBLE

TORONTO (CP)—All Toronto Maple Leafs' attacking power will be needed to carry them past the pesky Detroit Red Wings into the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup finals.

Leafs pounded against the Red Wing defences all last evening and managed to squeeze through with a 2 to 1 victory in the opener of the best-of-three semifinals because of two brilliant dashes by Sylvanus Apps and Dave (Sweeney) Schriner.

One of the Detroit rookies, Connie Brown, scored the Detroit goal midway through the third period. Moments later young Byron (Butch) McDonald, who had started the scoring play for Brown, hit a goalpost with a shot that would have tied the game.

THOMPSON BRILLIANT

The Wings got only two other drives on the Toronto net in the third period but that was their method for the night—to dog the Toronto forwards and speed away when openings came. When the Leafs brought the 13,088 customers to their feet with rushes to Tiny Thompson's doorstep, the veteran goaltender almost always had a brilliant answer.

The aggressiveness of Captain Ebbie Goodfellow's play on the defence contributed to his team's undoing. He was serving a two-minute penalty—part of the total of nine minutes he served—when Apps opened the scoring after 11.18 of the third.

Schriner's goal, scored with only 56 seconds of the third period gone, was even prettier. He sped around the defence from right wing and lifted the puck over Thompson's shoulder as the goalie fell.

All but one of the nine penalties came in the second period and two of them were majors to Bingo Kampman of the Leafs and Goodfellow for fighting.

Summary

First period—No score. Penalty: Goodfellow.

Second period — 1, Toronto, Apps (Metz), 11.18. Penalties: Goldup, Orlando, Horner (2), Goodfellow (major and minor), Kampman (major) and Abel.

Third period — 2, Toronto, Schriner, .56; 3, Detroit, Brown (McDonald), 9.30.

PATROL CAR FOR SAANICH POLICE

The Saanich Council last night approved purchase for the municipal police department of a patrol car, similar to that used by the highway patrol of the B.C. Police.

The council authorized the purchase when passing police estimates for the year. Preliminary consideration was given the council's draft estimates but action in reducing these and striking the mill rate was deferred until the next meeting, which will be devoted solely to budget work.

The council this year will attempt to bring the figures to about the same totals as last year, although there appears probability of slight increases in various departments which may mean a slight increase in taxes.

Native Sons of Canada, Victoria Assembly No. 1, will meet tomorrow night at 8 in the Foresters' Hall.

PARSON WANTED TO GO TO JAIL

A parson who indignantly claimed he had been unjustly prosecuted and said he would serve a day in jail for a parking infraction rather than pay a $2.50 fine, had his mind changed somewhat when Magistrate Hall made a distress order against his car.

Although admitting he parked in a prohibited area which was marked with yellow paint the minister said his car was only there four minutes while he went into a bank.

After he was found guilty the minister said: "I refuse to pay the fine under such circumstances. I'll take my medicine, I'll go to jail."

The magistrate then said he would make a distress order against the defendant's car to realize the amount of the fine.

"Have I nothing to say about that?" asked the parson.

"You can appeal" the magistrate replied, with this the parson left.

Murder Trial Now in Court

The implication of murder in cases in which abortion leads to the death of the expectant woman was explained to the jury as trial of Helen A. "Nellie" Anderson on that charge opened in Assize Court today.

M. B. Jackson, K.C., made the explanation following Mrs. Anderson's plea of not guilty to the charge arising out of the death of Chiyeko Nagano, Duncan Japanese girl who died December 14 last in Duncan.

Murder was charged, he said, when a person committed an illegal act knowing at the time that the person on whom the operation was performed was likely to die as the result.

At this morning's hearing Dr. G. W. C. Bissett, Duncan physician, testified he had attended the deceased on December 1 and had ordered her removed to the Duncan hospital, where he diagnosed her condition as one caused by sceptic abortion. By the ninth day of her illness he realized a fatal outcome was likely and, after securing legal advice, had attended taking of a dying declaration from the woman as she lay in a hospital cot.

Further evidence on that declaration, contents of which had not been made known to the jury at the luncheon adjournment, was given by Gerald Arthur Tisdall, stipendary magistrate, who took down the woman's answers to questions, by J. Y. Copeman, Nurse Charlotte L. Flick, Constable David James Shand and Yoshi Tamura, all of whom were present when the document was written.

Mr. Jackson, in his summary of evidence to be adduced, stated it would cover relations between a young man and the deceased, the latter's pregnancy and communications between the young man and Mrs. Anderson as well as action taken by Mrs. Anderson and by the deceased at her alleged instructions.

Stuart Henderson, assisted by Sinclair Elliott, is conducting the defence. Chief Justice Morrison presides over the court and the jury is composed of Wm. N. Lenfesty, foreman, Charles H. Freer, Percy Shrimpton, James Elrick, Edward Callan, George Heather, R. Wm. Knowles, D. J. Farmer, A. V. Danby, Wm. A. Davis, George S. Brown and Henry A. Humber.

McPHEE—Miss Gertrude McPhee of 69 Menzies Street died this morning at the Royal Jubilee Hospital. She was a native of Ontario and leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ben Foxall, Erskine, Alta., and Mrs. Petite, Sask., and two brothers, Dan McPhee of Lillooet, B.C., and R. H. McPhee of Victoria. In loving memory of Mrs. K. A. Brooker, who passed away Easter Sunday, March 27, 1932.

Her smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall;
She had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.

Some day we hope to meet her;
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp her hand in a better land,
Never to part again.

Inserted by her loving sisters, Nell and Edna.

'Gulliver's Travels' At Atlas Tomorrow

Miami, Fla., is well on the way to becoming a second Hollywood with the release of Paramount's full-length technicolor cartoon, "Gulliver's Travels," the first big picture made by Max Fleischer in his Dixie studios.

Fleischer's popular short subjects, "Betty Boop," "Popeye" and "Spunky and Hunky," have long been produced in Miami, while "Gulliver" itself has been in work in the tropical city for the past two years.

"Gulliver's Travels," which opens tomorrow at the Atlas Theatre, is the first full-length animated cartoon to reach the screen since "Snow White." It brings to life Jonathan Swift's immortal story of the English seaman's adventures in the land of miniature people.

Clock Symphony In 'Pinocchio'

Clocks become musical instruments, ticking out a miniature symphony, in a novel sequence in "Pinocchio," the Walt Disney full-length feature showing Thursday at the Capitol Theatre.

When a watchmaker was summoned to the Disney studio and told that they wanted him to synchronize the ticking of dozens of clocks of all sizes and sounds so that they would tick to a musical pattern, he told them it could not be done. Recognized as one of the best in the Disney sound men. They recognize no idea as impossible; and so they played around with springs, cogs and screws, and when the works were put back into the clocks they ticked perfectly to the established musical pattern. Furthermore they sustained the patter for five minutes. On the sound track this is about 500 feet, or half a reel.

"Pinocchio" presents other musical novelties never before achieved on the sound screen and will prove particularly interesting to musicians, entirely aside from the interest of its story. This is Walt Disney's new de luxe production, comparable to his "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," and it is released by RKO Radio.

CADET THEATRE

Revealed for the first time on the screen in Alexander Korda's "The Lion Has Wings," now showing at the Cadet Theatre, is Britain's famous "Central Control Room," from which all aerial war manoeuvres are directed. This room, which may be said to be one of the focal points in Britain's war with Germany, is equipped with two giant maps of the military terrain on which all plane positions, including those of the enemy, are plotted.

DOMINION THEATRE

The colorful, romantic days of minstrels and river boats are brought stirringly to the screen in "Swanee River," which is now at the Dominion Theatre. Sidney Lanfield directed and the cast features Felix Bressart, Chick Chandler, Russell Hicks, George Reed and the Hall Johnson Choir.

Other famous Foster songs heard in the film are "Beautiful Dreamer" and "Soiree Polka."

OAK BAY THEATRE

A poignant dramatic story based on one of the most stirring chapters of the Great War, a brilliant star in her finest role and a cast of 40 distinguished players, briefly sums up the entertainment ingredients of "Nurse Edith Cavell," which is now showing at the Oak Bay Theatre.

PLAZA THEATRE

"I was a Spy," now at the Plaza Theatre with Madeleine Carroll and Herbert Marshall costarred, receives unqualified approval. It is a truly spectacular film, intensely dramatic, profoundly human. It belongs to the outstanding pictures of all time.

RIO THEATRE

Jane Withers makes a charming little Ma'amselle in "Pack Up Your Troubles," the 20th Century-Fox comedy, which brings her to the Rio Theatre today with the Ritz Brothers contributing to the general gaiety.

The great interest being shown by this city in the appearance here of a British artist has resulted in the expression of much satisfaction by the management, Hilker Attractions. Mail order response for the Alec Templeton concert in the Royal Victoria Theatre April 10, has been very active. In congratulating Mr. Templeton yesterday on another matter, Mr. Hilker mentioned the strong advance sale and Mr. Templeton wired back his pleasure that he should be so welcome in a British community. Mail orders are now being accepted at Fletcher Bros. Music Store, 1130 Douglas Street.

SHIP KEEL-LAYING STARTS NEXT WEEK

Steel has been delivered at local shipyards for the submarine chasers to be built for the War Supply Board and preliminary construction work will be commenced next week.

The first shipment of steel from eastern plants has been received by the Victoria Machinery Depot Ltd., it was announced today by the company.

Asked when the keel-laying would take place, Herbert S. Hammill, secretary and director of the Victoria Machinery Depot, said: "We expect to make a start at the first of the week."

Three 1,000-ton whaler-type chasers will be built by the V.M.D., and three more will be constructed by Yarrows Ltd., of Esquimalt.

Yarrows are working out construction details and preparing building ways, preliminary to a start on the contract, but up to today the firm was waiting arrival of steel. The V.M.D. is building two ways immediately west of the Bay Street shipyard on property which the company acquired from the city. These building ways are being completed by the Victoria Pile Driving Company and the first should be ready next week to permit the keel laying to proceed.

As the contracts drive ahead more men will be put to work by [illegible] skilled and semiskilled workers will shortly be employed on the shipbuilding contracts here.

Adelaide to Resume

Completing her overhaul here, C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide will next Wednesday resume her regular schedule to Prince Rupert, replacing the relief boat Princess Louise.

Princess Louise will then come to Victoria to undergo overhaul before entering the Alaska tourist service at the end of April.

Princess Elaine has arrived here for spring refit, being replaced on the Nanaimo-Vancouver run by Princess Victoria.

To Survey Coast

After completing her refit at the Victoria Machinery Depot within about two weeks, Ss. Wm. Stewart of the Dominion hydrographic survey will shift to the Department of Transport wharf to load supplies in readiness for her annual survey coast cruise. She will be away from port all summer charting hidden rocks along the British Columbia coast.

The houseboat Pender will also shortly go into commission for survey work.

Delayed By Storm

Ss. Prince John of Canadian National Steamships Ltd. has been delayed by bad weather in northern B.C. waters, the company has been advised.

Due from the Queen Charlotte Islands today, the John will not make Vancouver until late tomorrow.

1 Missing, 6 Burned In Destroyer Blast

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—An explosion in an after deckhouse of the United States navy's centrality destroyer King today, left one sailor missing—apparently blown overboard—and six others burned, one critically.

Capt. William S. Farber, commander of the neutrality patrol unit to which the King was assigned, said the blast appeared to have been caused by some form of gas which ignited in an undetermined manner.

The King was at a destroyer mooring in the upper harbor here when the blast occurred. Naval officers said Richard Carel Oehleft, fireman, was missing.

The official cause of the blast awaited findings of a naval board of inquiry yet to be appointed.

Newspaper Gave Spee's Position

An instance of how necessary is the enforcement of the naval demands for secrecy in movements of ships, however innocently given or however farfetched the possibilities might be, is seen in the destruction of the German pocket battleship Graf Spee.

Had it not been for a shipping item in a newspaper, the Graf Spee might still have been afloat. And perhaps, due to these innocent paragraphs, the Graf Spee was able to "knock over" a large percentage of the vessels she did destroy.

When caught by the British cruisers, that day off the South American coast, the powerful German raider was prowling those seas looking for the great British liner Highland Princess, 15,000 gross tons register. No spy had told the German commander where or when to look for the ship. He had obtained his information from a newspaper item announcing the sailing date of the ship.

Join Air Record

Northwest Airlines today joined the rest of the airlines of Canada and the United States in celebrating the rounding out of a full year without an airline passenger fatality, according to Walter Miles, General Agent here.

Northwest recently received another aviation award from the National Safety Council for its fine showing — the third such award received in recent years. The N.W.A. passenger miles for the 12-month period were 38,263,682 and plane miles flown totaled 5,378,439 while passengers using the line totaled 64,109.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

Mariners are advised that the white, flashing light on Rebecca Suit at entrance to Heriot Bay, Gulf of Georgia, B.C. is reported not burning. This will be relighted at earliest opportunity.

Employers Accept Longshore Terms

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Seven fundamental points which union longshoremen said could form the basis for a long-term waterfront labor peace were accepted today by coast employers as the foundation for a contract.

The employers replied, however, that any permanent peace under a new contract must provide for guarantees of its observance, with payment of damages for nonperformance by either party.

Relations between employers and the longshoremen have been strained many times since the coastwide maritime strike of 1934, and scores of disputes have arisen in which cargoes were delayed, sailings halted and even entire ports shut down for weeks at a time.

Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, said the seven fundamentals were designed as the basis for a contract which could assure peaceful working relations for as long as five years. Issues besides the points would be subject to negotiation and, in the event of failure to agree, to arbitration.

Included in fundamental points which the union said were necessary for its protection were a six-hour day, union hiring hall, union employment preference, the right to respect picket lines and the union right to discipline its own members. Bridges proposed the contract basis in a letter to employers Monday.

Marine Engine Demand

According to the March issue of "Harbor and Shipping," marine engine sales in British Columbia during 1939 recorded an increase of 36 per cent over the previous year and established an all time high at 21,500 H.P., consisting of 8,600 H.P. diesel and 12,900 H.P. gasoline. In recent years the best previous year was in 1937 when the total was 18,000 H.P. which was an increase of 100 per cent over sales in 1934.

UTILITY HAD DECREASE

MONTREAL (CP)—A decrease of $3,936 was reported today by Canadian Western Natural Gas, Light, Heat and Power Company Limited in net profit of $488,424 for 1939, against $492,360 in 1938.

Current assets were shown at $1,077,651 and current liabilities at $293,728, excluding customers' deposits of $282,697.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Early gains were wiped out on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today and wheat futures prices closed unchanged to ⅛ lower. Early buying boosted the trend more than ½ cent higher than yesterday's close before mid-session.

Quotations at the close were: May 89¾, July 90⅞, October 92⅝ cents.

The Winnipeg market followed the weak Chicago tone. The southern market sank on forecasts of moisture in the United States winter wheat belt and was quoted ¾ cent down just before the close.

Overseas sales of Canadian wheat during the last 24 hours were estimated at 300,000 bushels, presumably for the United Kingdom.

The spectacular rise of flax in the coarse grain futures pit reached a new high when 10-year-old records were reached. For the first time since 1930 flax sold at 213 cents and at the peak was quoted at 213⅞ cents. Speculative buying combined with light offerings to bring a boost of more than 2 cents over yesterday's closing prices.

Other grains in the futures pit were steady. Cash grain trade was flat.

TERRIFIC BLASTS SHAKE GERMAN STRONGHOLD—Striking swiftly to avenge the German raid on Scapa Flow, the Royal Air Force rained destruction on the Island of Sylt, the German air base whence most raids on British shipping and the east coast start. Wave after wave of bombers flew 350 miles over the North Sea and dropped their bombs on hangars, ammunition dumps, slipways and railroads in a seven-hour raid. To prove conclusively what damage was done during the night two British pilots raced back over the island in broad daylight and photographed results.

London Market

LONDON (AP)—Forward movements in domestic rails and gold stocks countered the main trend in security dealings today. Traders kept commitments low as they waited for the budget message due soon. A few selling orders were enough to depress government bonds and the new war loan declined to ¼ point discount. Tobacco and liquor stocks posted the widest losses in the industrial list while iron and steel issues showed a little resistance.

Radio Waves Differ From Sound Waves

Amateur radio work was carried on during the World War, but regular day-by-day broadcasting came after its close.

There has been dispute as to whether Station WWJ of Detroit or KDKA of Pittsburg or WHA of Madison, Wisconsin was first to put on a daily program. We may have notes on this point at some later time. In any case the years from 1920 to 1923 saw broadcasting stations come into being in many cities. Thousands of persons heard public speakers and musicians send words and music over the air.

A tennis court radio interview.

At this point I wish to go into the phrase "over the air." The words are used quite commonly, but we must be careful to remember that the air does not carry radio waves. They go through it, but are not carried by it.

What a difference it would make if radio waves moved like sound waves! A sound wave, moving with the help of air, travels only about one-fifth of a mile per second. At this rate it would take one minute to go a distance of 12 miles.

If there were an explosion loud enough to be heard from Ottawa to Mexico City, the sound waves would travel 2,300 miles. To cover that distance at the rate of one-fifth of a mile per second, would take three hours and 11 minutes!

Think of what it would do to radio if we had to wait so long to receive the sounds!

As it is, the sound comes on the instant. We hear London or Paris or Berlin or Rome "speaking." We hear the voice the very second a word is spoken.

The secret is the change from sound waves to electric waves. Sound waves of the voice, or of a musical instrument, are changed into electric waves which can move with the speed of light.

The electric radio waves move through things which are in their way—houses, hills, mountains—and reach the radio sets in our homes. They are "caught" in a radio set, and are turned back into sound waves.

So we hear music and human voices from points which may be thousands of miles distant. It happens in the twinkling of an eye. It is a part of the "magic" of the modern world. Many programs are not as good as they should be, but in time the quality is likely to be better.

There was a time when all moving pictures were "silent." Today we have talking moving pictures. That is a big change. A change of equal importance is going on in radio. Our next story will be about early television.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, March 21

Good and evil planetary aspects contend today. The morning hours are fortunate to those who control others. Persons in places in the Sun should benefit through loyalty to those subordinate to them. Violent changes in European War policies are indicated as a web of trade and other pacts is woven by the powers.

This is a day for women of good sense to stay in the background as news of war horrors awakens citizens to perils, internal as well as external. It is a date for adding comfort and beauty to the home which will seem more than ever a safe refuge. The stars encourage in women the urge toward war service, such as nursing and providing for the unfortunate.

The stock market will continue uncertain and subject to great fluctuations. Speculation should be avoided. Prosperity here will contrast strongly with the destruction wrought by war. In the midst of plenty those who have foresight will prepare for times of stress. Thrift should be practiced, although generous spending is helpful to trade and commerce.

Partizan prejudices may interfere with constructive legislation at this time when many pressing matters are confusing to legislators as well as to taxpayers. While federal economy is preached, increased outlays will be imperative as the national war effort becomes more and more important to the Allies.

Spain is suddenly to gain world attention as it becomes a pawn on the dictators' chessboard. The Catholic church will exert strong influence toward the wise adjustment of problems affecting Mussolini and Italy. Peace efforts will be strengthened and extended, but the stars seem to forecast war that finally vanquishes completely the powers that set back human progress.

Persons whose birthday it is have the augury of a year of varied fortunes. Disputes of all sorts should be avoided. Lawsuits will be most unlucky.

Children born on this day probably will be sensitive and temperamental. They should be bright of mind and strong of body, fond of the good things of life and able to procure them.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am engaged to a lawyer. I admire him a great deal except for the fact that he is slouchy in his appearance. His clothes are always dirty, messy and look as if they had been thrown at him. They are not even buttoned up properly. Although I love him, I am getting so I do not like to be seen out with him, especially in a restaurant, where he makes so much noise with his food as to embarrass me. What can I say or do to show him that I am dissatisfied with him? How will it be if he doesn't change? Won't it hurt his business? WORRIED.

Answer: The one thing that is absolutely necessary to a woman's happiness in marriage is for her to be proud of her husband. If for any reason whatsoever she is ashamed of him her marriage will be dust and ashes in her teeth.

And there is no possible thing that a husband could do that would so get on his wife's nerves as for him to be unkempt and untidy about his person. She could forgive his committing a crime easier than she could his wearing a dirty shirt.

DOROTHY DIX.

Newest Bomb Tested in U.S.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Lester Barlow, Baltimore inventor, gave a noisy demonstration of the liquid-oxygen, carbon bomb that he says is capable of killing every living thing within a 1,000-foot radius—yet is safe to handle.

Before a crowd of newsmen and photographers, protected by sandbags, Barlow yesterday showed how much damage his explosive could do and how much of a beating it would take without releasing its destructive force.

The explosive was contained in cloth bags, looking much more like ordinary sugar bags than instruments of death. Barlow set off the charge with an electric detonator—the only means, he contends, of releasing the bomb's destructive force.

To show the power of his explosive, Barlow splintered two heavy logs and a telephone poles with two eight-ounce charges. Then he blew up a sandbag dugout with a five-pound charge.

To prove his bomb could not be set off by impact or shock, Barlow piercerd a pound-and-a quarter bag with a rifle bullet. There was no explosion.

From a makeshift mortar, he fired a pound-and-half charge at a steel plate 12 feet away. The bag, traveling at an estimated 1,200 feet a second, thudded against the plate, but did not explode.

HIGH IN AIR

Then a five-pound charge of the explosive in a steel jacket was fired from the motar. It shot about 1,500 feet into the air and crashed back to earth without exploding.

There were sharp, reverberating reports when Barlow set off the charges with the detonator. At the last one, when the dugout was blown up, witnesses crouched at a safe distance said they could feel slight "waves" in the air. Barlow contends his bomb explodes with detonating waves that can be made so powerful that nothing can withstand the shock.

Eight ounces of the substance, which Barlow calls "gimite," made matchwood of a 40-foot telephone pole and splintered two logs of the same size. The "gimite" exploded with a roar and a flash, kicked up a shower of dirt and hurled pieces of wood as high as 150 feet into the air.

The test was arranged after a joint hearing of the United States Senate and House of Representatives naval and military committees.

FALSE TEETH WEARERS
OFTEN WORST BREATH OFFENDERS

Don't let Denture Breath and stains shout "False Teeth"

DENTISTS SAY···USE POLIDENT

Plates and bridges soak up odors and impurities like a sponge! A thin dark scum collects on them. This scum holds germs and decay bacteria. It is so tough that ordinary brushing seldom removes it. And it gets into every tiny crevice where brushing can't even reach. Almost always it results in "denture breath"—probably the most offensive of all breath odors.

Yet there's a perfect way to clean and purify false teeth without brushing, acid or danger. It is Polident, a powder that dissolves away all scum, stains, tarnish and odor.

Polident makes breath sweeter—plates or bridges look better and feel better. Tens of thousands call Polident a blessing for comfort, convenience and hygiene.

Long-lasting economical can costs only 40¢, at any drug store. And your money back if you are not delighted. Approved by leading dentists everywhere. Stafford-Miller, (of Canada) Ltd., Toronto.

POLIDENT

Cleans, Purifies Without Brushing!

Do this daily: Add a little Polident powder to ½ glass water. Stir. Then put in plate or bridge for 10 to 15 minutes. Rinse—and it's ready to use.

COMMANDER HAS GREAT RECORD

Commander Spicer-Simson R.N., F.R.G.S., who will lecture tomorrow evening in the Memorial Hall at 8 has won distinction in many and various fields of action. His decorations include the D.S.O., the China Medal (1900), Commander of the Order of the Belgian Crown, Belgian Croix de Guerre etc.

He was officer in charge of the upper Yangtse survey. In this capacity he made the first survey, whereby the upper part of the great waterway of China was opened to regular steamship traffic. Among the notable activities with which Commander Spicer-Simson was associated during the last war was that of the naval expedition to Lake Tanganyika, which he commanded. The transporting of this expedition, comprising two armed motor boats, and 28 officers and men from England to central Africa was an achievement in itself; the difficulties encountered in penetrating some 3,000 miles of wild and partly unexplored country may well have brought this daring exploit to a sorry conclusion, however the goal was reached, and the supremacy of the lake was secured—and this without a single casualty.

The subject of the commander's lecture will be "Submarine Warfare During the World War," it will be illustrated with slides specially selected from the Admiralty collection of war photographs. The proceeds, thanks to the generosity of Commander Spicer-Simson, will be donated to the work of the Red Cross Society.

During the year 1900, 4,192 motor cars were produced.

C.C.F. Gains Votes In Kootenay Area

NELSON, B.C. (CP) — Over 5,000 more voters cast their ballots in Kootenay West in the 1940 federal election than in 1935 and the C.C.F. Party gained more than half of the increase.

The gain was insufficient for victory, however, for W. K. Esling, Conservative federal member for the past 15 years, retained his seat as a National government candidate. His plurality was sharply reduced, however the figures showing a margin of less than 300 over H. W. Herridge, C.C.F. candidate, compared with a plurality of 1,387 as compiled on election night, 1935. Donald MacDonald, who was Liberal candidate in place of D. D. McLean was third as was Mr. McLean.

The number of voters listed increased from 15,807 to 20,316. The recorded vote increased from 11,702 to 17,014. Out of the increase of 5,312 votes the C.C.F. gained 2,665 votes, the Conservatives (National government) 1,573 votes and the Liberals 1,074 votes.
